entered late in 1778 close the record. This liber also has occasional entries of bills of sale and other papers.

The records of the office of register of wills seem to be nearly complete for the earlier years of the county.

Liber A J No. 1 of wills has 533 pages of entries arranged alphabetically from Q to Z and ranging in time from 1774 to 1785.
Liber A J No. 2 of wills has 271 pages of entries arranged from A to P.
Liber of inventories marked "1777 to 1787" has 293 pages.
Liber of administration accounts marked "1774-91" has 528 pages.

COMMISSION BOOK, 82.

The eighteenth century folio known as "Commission Book No. 82" is in reality one of the records of the Council of Maryland and contains all sorts of miscellaneous entries from July 1733 to 1773, covering 347 pages. There are many commissions recorded, together with ship registries, Inductions to Clergymen, licenses to preach, naturalizations and denizations, receipts for arms and ammunition, pardons and reprieves, and other miscellaneous entries. A few of the commissions and pardons are entered in full in the involved legal verbiage of the period, but the majority of the items are briefly entered, covering only two to three lines each. This transcript gives all essential information contained in the original manuscript, but so arranged as to emphasize the personal names mentioned. For obvious reasons, a few items, such as the pardon of "Negro Jack," which in the original covers three pages, is entirely omitted. The numbers in parentheses refer to the pages of the original Mss. There is an unexplained break in this record between 1751 and 1761, which corresponds with a similar lapse in the record of the Court of Appeals.

Another Commission Book, 1726 to 1786, also a record of the Council, contains all of the major commissions issued in that period.

Other commissions are to be found in the published volumes of the Archives.—[Editor.]

God and, through Jesus Christ, to live according to His merciful will, in humility and wholly for our love. If anything in this brief letter seems unclear or unintelligible to you, I ask you to forgive it in love, for I have written it in simplicity according to my inner foundation, as well as it has been given me.

I remain your fellow-yearner for the revelation of the children of God and a poor pilgrim who is wishing for and doing battle with you.

Charles [Harlacker]

Greet for me your dear ones and all the members in Germantown.

N.B. As far as your son William is concerned, he arrived here safely with Brother Schlingluff and is minded, I understand, to remain here this winter. He works at his trade at David Steiner's. I believe your brother John has written you a detailed report.

Please deliver this letter to the dear Brother Sander Mack to be opened by him.

Krefeld.

Through a dear brother, whom the angels of the Lord may accompany."[21]

Nicholas Martin to Alexander Mack, Jr.

Nicholas Martin, minister of the early Conococheague congregation, had previously been an elder of the Little Conewago church, beginning about 1757. His letter to Alexander Mack, Jr., gives good insight into the way church leaders visited other congregations to preach and preside at love feasts. Also current practices of church order are seen in the statements about ordination. The "Brother Stephen" referred to is doubtless Stephen Waller, listed by Morgan Edwards as Martin's assistant.[22]

Conococheague, May 24, 1772

First, my kind and warm greeting with wishes for health and happiness in soul and body to you, much beloved and esteemed brother in the Lord, Alexander Mack, along with your dear wife and children. Yes, I wish that it may be well with your soul, as I also hope that He is with you in your daily tasks.

As far as I and my family are concerned, we are, praise God, still rather healthy and well physically. For good health in the faith we are still indefatigably called by God's grace and His good Spirit to remain faithful unto death in order finally to obtain or inherit the crown of righteousness and glory through grace.

I received your dear letter in good order, but only after the dear Brother Martin Urner had been with us. Furthermore, we must not deny that the grace of God has been poured out in large measure, for the number of disciples has considerably increased, and several of them seem to be truly awakened souls and it seems almost as if the last will be the first, and the first will be last. May the Lord yet add ten thousand times as many and increase the number of His disciples daily for His own sake and for the honor of His holy name.

You will perhaps know that the dear Brother Michael Miller died a year ago. Brother Jacob Stutzman is again quite improved; he was very feeble this past winter.

As far as the brethren are concerned who were to be ordained, they did not come, nor did Brother Daniel Letterman and Brother Jacob Donner [Danner]. I believe there were twenty in number who were baptized at that time. I was told this by Brother Daniel Letterman and I am to greet you warmly for him in my letter and to report to you that there was much opposition against Brother Donner so that he could not be ordained with unanimity of the congregation. As regards Brother Stephen, I believe there would not have been much opposition to him at that same time. However, he has now become more reluctant because he thinks that he has become estranged to the brethren throughout the country because he became naturalized. Now I learned recently that he wishes to move and go away because his brother has already moved away.

Dear brother, do not think ill of me for being so slow in answering, for I have waited a long time for a good opportunity. Greet for me also the dear Brother Christopher Sauer and the dear Brother George Schreiber whenever it is convenient for you. My wife sends you her warm greetings. I commend myself to your prayer and may you be warmly commended to God and the word of His grace.

Written in haste by me, your very humble brother.

Nicholas Martin

This is for the dear friend Sander Mack near Germantown.

This letter is to be delivered to Christopher Sauer in Germantown."[23]

ULRICH LINE

The name Ulrich (Ullery, Ulry, Ulrick, Ellery, Wolery, etc.) is said to mean "full of riches" and is used both as a given name and surname in Germany and Switzerland.

The Ulrich lines in American probably began with several immigrants from both Germany and Switzerland who came to Pennsylvania in the early 1700s. One such record is that of Johannes Ullerich and Christopher Ulrik who arrived at Philadelphia on 2 Oct. 1727 in the ship "Adventure".[1] Liebegott[2] reports that Levi L. Ulrich said there is a tradition that four Ulrich brothers came from Germany in the early 18th century and settled in Pa. Elsewhere, he reports that Stephen Ulrich was born about 1700 in Germany, moved to Switzerland when quite young and came to America about 1725 to avoid military service. There were Ulrich land grants in Lancaster Co., Pa., as early as 1738. Stephen Ulrich, Jr., is mentioned in 1742. A literal interpretation might be that Stephen and some brothers came to America with their father, also named Stephen. The earliest Ulrich estate in Lancaster County is that of John, in 1758.

Stephen Ulrich of Philadelphia Co., Pa., was naturalized in April 1741.[3] Naturalization required a previous residence of seven years in the British Colonies in America.[4]

John Hale Stutesman of San Francisco[5], as a result of his research on his ancestor Jacob Stutzman, has shown a long term connection between the Ulrich and Stutzman families and has supplied new data on the early Ulrich line. He feels that both families were members of the Little Conewago Dunker Congregation which was formed near Hanover, Pa., about 1738 and mentioned that Morgan Edwards wrote, in 1770, that the congregation had been formed by "... Eldrick ... Stutsman" and others. This could be Ulrich and Stutzman.

✱ [5] Stutesman, John Hale, San Francisco, CA, whose research has provided most of the Ulrich data prior to 1785, especially the connections to Lancaster and York Counties, Pa.

1. STEPHEN ULRICH, SR., is the first identified member of the Ulrich line to be traced here. He was born about 1700, or earlier, probably in Germany or Switzerland, and was in America in 1742, but no immigration record has been found. Perhaps he was the one who was naturalized in April of 1741. He is connected to our line by the fact that, when his son Stephen received land warrants in 1742, Stephen, Sr., was mentioned as his father.

2. STEPHEN ULRICH, JR., was probably born prior to 1720 since he had land warrants in 1742. There is a record of his naturalization in Pennsylvania which means he was not born a subject of the British Crown. He was probably a native of Germany or Switzerland.

On 16 Feb. 1742, Stephen Ulrick, Jr., received two Pennsylvania warrants to take up 100 acres each. One of these, warrant eight, described the land on Little Conewago Creek as adjoining that of his father Stephen Ulrick. The land mentioned is about one mile south of McSherrystown, Adams County, Pa., but was in Lancaster Co. in 1742, then was included in York County when it was formed in 1749 and in Adams County when it was formed from York County in 1800.

On 15 Nov. 1749, Stephen Ullery bought 150 acres in "Digges Choice" from John Digges, and on 3 June 1758, "Stephen and Elizabeth Wollery of Frederick Co., Md." sold this land.[6] On 21 April 1761, Stephen Ulrich made deeds that sold his 200 acres of York County land to George Wain or Wine. One tract had been sold to Jacob Stutzman by 1759 and Stutzman had sold to Wine. The deeds were made to clear the record.[7] Stephen was already living in Maryland by this time.

In 1751, a Maryland patent for a tract called Germany in Frederick County, Maryland, was warranted to Hans Waggoner. On 25 Sept. 1752, Hand Waggoner sold 235 acres of this land on the western slope of the Conococheague Valley to Stephen Ulary, of Frederick County, Maryland. On 19 Feb. 1754, Stephen and Elizabeth Ulary sold 25 acres of the same land to Ludwig Miller. On 31 May 1754, Stephen and Elizabeth Ularick of Frederick County, Maryland, sold 86 acres of their 1752 purchase to Daniel Ularick. In August of 1754, Stephen Ulrich was appointed an overseer of roads in Conococheague Hundred, will, he probably died young.

4. Elizabeth Ulrich, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Brumbaugh) Ulrich, was born 8 April 1781, while her parents were probably still residents of Washington County, MD. About 1799-1800, she married Jacob Brown. See The Brown Line.

John W., Catharine, Elizabeth, Sarah, Abraham, and David.[34] The cover of the Spring 1972 issue of "The Studebaker Family" shows the Ohio homes of some of the children of Jacob and Mary (Snider) Studebaker including: David Studebaker (1780 - 1826) and Mary Ulrey (1783 - 1861); John Studebaker (1787 - 1833) and Hannah Ulrey (1789 - 1862).[35]

iii. Stephen Ulrich, b. 24 Nov. 1785

He seems to be included in the 1790 census of the family but not in the 1800 census. Since neither he nor his heirs are mentioned in his father's will, he probably died young.

iv. Catherine Ulrich, b. 15 Oct.1787

She married John Snider, b. 1770. He was a farmer and member of the G.B.B. Church. He died in 1855 and is buried in Snake Spring Township, Bedford County, PA. They had seven children -- John, Jacob U., Elvina, David, Margaret, Maria, and Samuel.[36] Brumbaugh may be incorrect on the dates for John since the 1850 census of Bedford County lists the family of John (age 65) and Catherine (age 63) and in 1860 Snake Spring Township, John (age 75) and Catherine (age 72) Snider are listed. They were both born in Maryland and, in 1860, held real estate valued at $80,000.

vi. Hannah Ulrich, b. 20 May 1789, d. 1862

She married John Studebaker, son of Jacob and Mary (Snider) Studebaker. He was a farmer and member of the G. B. B. Church. They moved to southern Ohio in 1816. Hannah died in Oct. 1862 and was buried at Eaton, Delaware County, IN. They had fourteen (or more) children -- Samuel, Jacob, John, David, George W., Hannah, and Lydia.[37] "The Studebaker Family" adds Phoebe to this list and states that after John died in 1833, at age 46, Hannah married Elder Benjamin Bowman in Indiana.[38]

vi. Jacob Ulrich, b. 13 Aug. 1792

He was not included in the 1800 census of this family and since neither he nor his heirs are mentioned in his father's

Frederick County, for 1755. Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich had by now sold 111 acres of their 1752 purchase and in 1764 he was given a warrant to resurvey the remaining 124 acres and to add some contiguous land. The survey was completed in 1766 and on 29 Sept. 1767, Stephen was granted a patent for 694 acres which he now called Good Neighbor. Also, on 29 Sept. 1761, Stephen Ulrick and Nicholas Martin of Frederick County, MD, received a patent for 425 acres for which they had obtained a warrant on 27 Aug. 1759. This tract was called Stephens's Hope and included by a former survey, Much Grumbling, which had not been taken up by Jacob Funk.

Jacob Stutzman had taken up an adjoining tract, Good Luck, in 1761. In 1763, Stephen Ulrich and Jacob Stutzman attended a Great Council of the Brethren at Conestoga, PA, perhaps as church elders. On 10 April 1767, "Stephen Ulrick of Fredrick Co., Md." and Jacob Stutzman were naturalized together in Pennsylvania.[8] They did this by affirmation rather than an oath, since their religion did not allow swearing even for this purpose. In 1773, Stephen Ulrick was a witness to the will of Jacob Stutzman and signed in German.[9] Jacob died in 1775, in Peters Twp., Cumberland County, PA, and his widow married Stephen Ulrich about 1782.[10]

In 1768 and 1769, Stephen sold 345 acres of Good Neighbor in four pieces, but the deeds no longer mention his wife Elizabeth and she may have been dead by this time. ON May 1772, Nicholas Martin, Dunker minister to the Conococheague Valley Congregation, wrote that "Brother Stephen ... has now become more reluctant (to be ordained) because he thinks that he has become estranged to the brethren throughout the country because he became naturalized".[11] This is supposed to refer to Stephen "Woller", Martin's assistant. The letter also referred to the fact that "brother Stephen's" brother John had moved away. John Ulrich had moved to Bedford County, PA, prior to 1772, so "brother Stephen" may well have been Stephen Ulrich.[12] John Ulrich (1755, 1768) and Daniel Ulrich (1754) had land grants in what became Washington Co., MD.[13]

On 25 March 1782, Stephen Ulrich and Hannah Stutzman filed a premarital agreement in Washington County, MD, (formed from Frederick County in 1776) "for and in consideration of a marriage intended by God's permission to be shortly had and solemnized between the said Stephen Ulrich and Hanna Stootsman ...".[14] The intent of this agreement was that the previous children of each would not inherit from the estate of the other spouse. A 1783 tax list of Washington County shows Stephen Wolery with 324 acres (part of Germany), three horses and three cattle.[15] The deed books of Washington County, MD, contain a record[16] of in which the heirs of Stephen Ulrich sold some of their inheritance. A partial quotation from that record will suffice to show the genealogical content.

"This indenture made the seventeenth day of June in the year of our Lord one Thousand seven hundred and eighty five Between David Ulrick, Stephen Ulrick,Samuel Ulrich, Jacob Stutsman, Christina Stutsman, Daniel Miller, Elizabeth Miller, George Butterbaugh, Jacob Liear, Lidia Liear all of Washington County and State of Maryland of the one part" for fifteen hundred and ten pounds sold to John Cushwa of the same county part of a tract of land called Good Neighbour which contained 322 acres. According to the recorded, David Ulrich, Stephen Ulrich, Samuel Ulrich, Jacob Stutsman, George Butterbaugh (Puterbaugh), Henry Butterbaugh, Hannah Butterbaugh, and Ledy Liear signed by mark. The thirteen people appeared before two Justices of the Peace on 17 June 1785 to confirm the deed and "at the same time came Barbara, wife of David Ulrich & Susannah wife of the said Stephen Ulrich & Mary the wife of the sd. Samuel Ulrich" and relinquished all their right and claim of dower in the tract sold. On 21 June 1785, Johannes Cushwa (German signature) mortgaged his purchase to David Ulrich, Stephen Ulrich, Samuel Ulrich, Jacob Stutsman, Daniel Miller, George Butterbaugh, Henry Butterbaugh, and Jacob Liear.

In 1792, the heirs sold five and a half more acres.[17]

The list of Stephen Ulrich's children, as given below, had been, by 1979, developed over the past three or more decades by several researchers working on the Ulrich and related families. In the process

The combined effects of fading, water spots, and German script have made the records difficult to decipher. There may therefore be certain spelling errors here not attributable to the original authors. They have, however, left us with a more significant problem by not identifying the parents of the children recorded here. Since the records are of births prior to the time the Bible left Samuel's hands, we may surmise that he asked his children to record their own families in his Bible.

The family born 1781 -1792 is surely that of Samuel himself and the first birth does match that calculated for his daughter Elizabeth from her tombstone. The other three family groups would appear to be at least the first few children of his three daughters, Elizabeth Brown, Maria Studebaker, and Hannah Studebaker. The list that begins with Samuel, born 27 Sept 1801, must be the children of Jacob and Elizabeth Brown since this date matches that in Samuel Brown's own Bible. The list beginning with Samuel, born 1808, appears to be the first children of John and Hannah (Ullery) Studebaker and the list beginning with "palli", born 180-, must be some of the children of David and Mary (Ullery) Studebaker. This identification is made using dates from "The Studebaker Family".[32]

The list of children below is taken from the Ulrich Bible. Brumbaugh[33] named only the daughters, but supplied additional information on their families and descendants. Note that the first two sons and first two daughters were named after their grandparents Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich and Jacob and Mary Brumbaugh. This naming pattern is further circumstantial evidence of proper identification of this line.

Children of Samuel and Mary (Brumbaugh) Ulrich

i. Elizabeth Ulrich, b. 8 April 1781, d. 22 March 1857
    She married Jacob Brown, see below.
ii. Maria Ulrich, b. 3 ???? 1783 d. 1861
    She married David Studebaker, son of Jacob and Mary (Snider) Studebaker. David was a minister in the G.B.B. Church and moved to Ohio. He had seven children -- Jacob, of development, any references to original material and credits to contributors have been lost. Among the contributors were at least the following people: Calvin Ulry[18], George H. Liebegott[19], L. W. Schultz[20], Mrs. Kenneth H. Roehl[21], Lela Eby[22], and John Hale Stutesman[23].

Daniel Ulrich, usually included in this list of children, has been omitted here. Neither he nor his heirs are mentioned in the 1785 settlement, although he was probably alive and certainly had living children at the time. It could be argued, however, that he had previously or separately received his inheritance. However, since he purchased land as early as 1754 and is supposed to be the father of "oldest daughter" Susannah, born 3 May 1759, who married Jacob Butterbaugh, he appears to have been too old to fit into Stephen's family. Although all the birth dates in the list below appear to have been merely estimated and adjusted to present a consistent picture, the addition of a son Daniel who must have been at least ten years older than any of the other children does not seem reasonable. Daniel Ulrich's will, made 2 Jan. 1781, in Peters Twp., Cumberland Co., PA, and probated 4 Dec. 1792, in Bedford County, PA, was witnessed by Conrad Brumbach and Hanns (John) Ulrich and is written in German.

Children of Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich

i. David Ulrich, b. ca. 1746, d. 1823 (7)
He married Barbara and had ~~seen~~ children. They lived in Montgomery County, OH. She died in 1817.

ii. Stephen Ullery, b. 1750, d. 1835
This is probably the one in the 1790 census of Huntingdon County, PA. He married Susanna Rench (ca. 1760 - 1815). Bedford County, PA, Deed Book AA, p. 332, states that Stephen and Susanna Ulrich of Huntingdon County, PA, on 9 Aug. 1801, were selling land called Wilmington which he had been granted on 19 March 1799 -- 380.5 acres on Three Springs Branch of Yellow Creek in Morrison's Cove. In 1802, he received a patent for land in Madison Township, Montgomery County, OH. His will was made in 1822 and probated there on 30 March 1836. His son Samuel was born in 1794 in Huntingdon County, PA, according to a history of Montgomery County, OH.

iii. Christina Ulrich, b. ca. 1752, d. ca. 1810
She married Jacob Stutzman, Jr. (ca. 1746 - 1816), who was later her stepbrother. They settled the site of Johnstown, PA, about 1790, and went to Montgomery County, OH, about 1810.

3. iv. Samuel Ulrich, b. ca. 1754, d. 1822
He married Mary Brumbaugh -- details below.

v. Elizabeth Ulrich, b. ca. 1757, d. 1834
She married Daniel Miller (1755 - 1822) and they were in Ohio by 1802.

vi. Mary Ulrich, b. ca. 1760, d. ca. 1842
She married George Butterbaugh (ca. 1759 - 1800). They had five children and lived in Bedford County, PA.

vii. Hannah Ulrich, b. ca. 1762, d. 1798
She married Henry Butterbaugh (ca. 1761 - 1839) and had eight children. He died in Washington County, MD.

viii. Lydia Ulrich, b. ca. 1764[24] , d. ca. 1810
She married Jacob Lear, Jr., (--1812) and they lived in Cambria County, PA.

3. Samuel Ulrich, son of Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich, was born about 1754, probably in York County, PA, or in Frederick County, MD. About 1780, he married Mary Brumbaugh, daughter of Johann Jacob and Mary Elizabeth (Angle) Brumbaugh, who lived in Frederick County, MD. She is said to have been born in 1767 -- see discussion in the BRUMBAUGH LINE. Samuel and Mary were living in Frederick County, MD, in 1785 (see the deed quoted under Stephen Ulrich, above), but it was not long before they moved to Bedford County, PA. On 12 Dec. 1785, Samuel Ulrich and Jacob Brumbaugh received a warrant for 200 acres in Bedford County. Stephen Ulrich was issued a warrant on the same day and took up an adjoining tract. In May 1786, Samuel Ulrich and Jacob Brumbaugh received a patent for 289 acres of land in the south end of Morrison's Cove, Bedford County, PA, near the present town of New Enterprise. They called the tract Broomfield. In 1789, Samuel was taxed for 200 acres, 2 horses and 2 cows in Woodberry Township there. David, Daniel, and Stephen Ullery were

The following is a copy of the handwritten records of the blank leaves of a Bible printed in 1776 at Germantown, PA, by Christopher Saur (3rd ed.). This Bible belonged to Samuel Ulrich who willed it to his grandson, Samuel Brown, in 1822. Samuel Brown gave it to his daughter, Mary (Brown) Bowers. She requested that her son, Samuel Bowers, give the Bible to his daughter, Mary (Bowers) Adams. In 1963, Mary Adams, great-great-great granddaughter of Samuel Ulrich, allowed me to study and photograph this priceless relic in order to prepare this transcript. Sam Adams had this Bible after his mother died.

[24] The 1800 census of Somerset County, PA, shows the wife of Jacob Leer to be over 44 years old, so she may have been born earlier. (from John Hale Stutesman).

Samuel Ulrich signed in German. The witnesses were Daniel Leedy, Jacob Holsinger and John Holsinger, Jr. A codicil was added as follows:

" I Samuel Ulrich of woodberry township Bedford county and State of pennsylvania do this twenty first Day of may AD on thousand Eight hundred and twenty two make and pulish [sic] this codicil to my last will and testament in manner following (that is to say) I give to my son in law Jacob Brown the mare I now own and to my grandson Samuel Brown I give my large German Bible and I do hereby Declare and order that my four Daughters named in my last will and testament pay each an equal part or Share of a Debt due by me to David Brumbaugh of Washington county Maryland the remaining part of my will and testament to be in full Virtue and it is my Desire that this my present codicil be annexed and made a part of my last will and testament to all intents and purposes in Wittnes where of I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 21 Day of may AD 1822

"Signed Sealed published by the above named Saml Ulrich to be annexed to his last will and testament in the presence of John Holsinger Senr, John Forry"
Again, Samuel signed in German script.

This will was probated in Bedford County, PA., on 5 August 1822. Daniel Leedy, Jacob Holsinger, John Holsinger, Jr., John Holsinger, Sr., and John Forry all appeared and "affirmed" that they had witnessed the documents for Samuel Ulrich who was of sound mind, memory, and understanding at the time the papers were executed.

It is clear from this record that Samuel Ulrich died sometime in May through August of 1822. On 8 Dec. 1825, Mary sold her interest in 407 acres in Morrison's Cove to George Brumbaugh, her brother.[30] She was still living in Woodberry Township on 24 Oct. 1828 when she appointed Henry Fluck as attorney to act for her.[31] Samuel and Mary are probably buried in the Brethren Cemetery at New Enterprise, but their tombstones there are relatively recent. Her stone, flat on the ground, say "Mary Brumbaugh, born 1767, married Elder Samuel Ulery". His is a standing stone and says "Samuel Ulery, died 1822".

on that tax list also.[25] In the 1790 census of Bedford County, PA, Samuel's family contained 1 male less than 16, 1 male more than 16, and five females. These would have been Samuel and Mary, their son Stephen and daughters Elizabeth, Maria, Catherine and Hannah. Daniel, John, and Samuel were again taxed in Woodbury Township for 1795.[26] The 1800 census of Bedford County shows the Samuel Ulrich family with one male, age 26-44 [Samuel], 2 females age 10-15 [Catherine and Hannah], and 1 female age 26-44 [Mary].

Brumbaugh quotes a letter from Mary's grandniece Barbara Snoeberger as follows: "Maria went for their cows one evening and became lost in the woods. The wolves came near her and she had to climb a tree. The family blew horns which she could hear, but, as she could not make them hear her calls and did not dare to get down from the tree, she was compelled to stay there all night. The wolves left in the morning, and she found she was in sight of her home where she had left a nursing baby."

Samuel Ulrich was an Elder in the German Baptist Brethren Church and perhaps was the first minister of the church in Woodberry Township. "For many years he was a noted speaker and the Elder in charge of the Woodbury Church."[27]

Samuel and Mary were involved in the settlement of her father's estate (see Brumbaugh Line) and are therefore mentioned in many deeds and agreements in Bedford County, starting in about 1804.

In the 1810 census, the only Samuel Ulrich record for Pennsylvania was a resident of Lancaster County, but he was under age 26 with no children given. On 15 April 1812, Samuel and Mary Ulry of Woodberry Township sold part of Broomfield to Jacob Brown. This had been granted to Jacob Brumbaugh and Samuel Ulry. Another part was sold to John Fory on the same date.[28] The 1820 census shows Samuel Ulrich in Woodberry Township, with Samuel and Mary, both over 45, another female, age 10-16, and a third female, age 16-26. On 28 Feb. 1822, Samuel Ulry and his wife Mary deeded to Jacob Brown (all residents of Bedford County), for two thousand and sixty one dollars and fifty cents, 257 acres on the waters of Yellow Creek in

ULRICH FAMILY

The name Ulrich (Ullery, Ulry, Ulrick, Ellery, Wolery, etc) is said to mean "full of riches" and is used both as a given name and surname in Germany and Switzerland.

The Ulrich lines in America probably began with several immigrants from both Germany and Switzerland who came to Pennsylvania in the early 1700's. One such record is that of Johannes Ullerich and Christopher Ulrik who arrived at Philadelphia on 2 Oct. 1727 in the ship "Adventure".{38} Liebegott{20} reports that Levi L. Ulrich said there is a tradition that four Ulrich brothers came from Germany in the early 18th century and settled in Pa. Elsewhere, he reports that Stephen Ulrich was born about 1700 in Germany, moved to Switzerland when quite young and came to America about 1725 to avoid military service. There were Ulrich land grants in Lancaster Co., Pa., as early as 1738. Stephen Ulrich, Jr., is mentioned in 1742. A literal interpretation might be that Stephen and some brothers came to America with their father, also named Stephen. The earliest Ulrich estate in Lancaster Co. is that of John, in 1758.

Stephen Ulrich of Philadelphia Co., Pa., was naturalized in April, 1741.{42} Naturalization required a previous residence of seven years in the British Colonies in America.{42}

John Hale Stutesman of San Francisco{39}, during his research on his ancestor Jacob Stutzman, has shown a long term connection between the Ulrich and Stutzman families and has supplied new data on the early Ulrich line. He feels that both families were members of the Little Conewago Dunker Congregation which was formed near Hanover, Pa., about 1738 and mentioned that Morgan Edwards wrote, in 1770, that the congregation had been formed by "...Eldrick ....Stutsman" and others. This could be Ulrich and Stutzman.

STEPHEN ULRICH, SR., is the first identified member of the Ulrich line to be traced here. He was born about 1700, or earlier, probably in Germany or Switzerland, and was in America in 1742, but no immigration record has been found. Perhaps he was the one naturalized in April of 1741. He is connected to our line by the fact that when his son Stephen received land warrants in 1742, Stephen, Sr., was mentioned as his father.

STEPHEN ULRICH, JR., was probably born prior to 1720 since he had land warrants in 1742. There is a record of his naturalization in Penn. which means he was not born a subject of the British Crown. He was probably a native of Germany or Switzerland.

On 16 Feb. 1742, Stephen Ulrick, Jr., received two Penn. warrants to take up 100 acres each. One of these, warrant 8, described the land on Little Conewago Creek as adjoining that of his father, Stephen Ulrick. The land mentioned is about one mile south of McSherrystown, Adams Co., Pa., but was in Lancaster Co. in 1742, then was included in York Co. when it was formed in 1749 and in Adams Co. when it was formed from York Co. in 1800.

On 15 Nov. 1749, Stephen Ullerey bought 150 acres in "Digges Choice" from John Digges, and on 3 June 1758, "Stephen and Elizabeth Wollery of Frederick Co., Md." sold this land.{40} On 21 April 1761, Stephen Ulrich made deeds that sold his 200 acres of York Co. land to George Wain or Wine. One tract had been sold to Jacob Stutzman by 1759 and Stutzman had sold to Wine. The deeds were made to clear the record.{41} Stephen was already living in Maryland by this time.

In 1751, a Maryland patent for a tract called Germany in Frederick Co., Md., was warranted to Hans Waggoner. On 25 Sept. 1752, Hans Waggoner sold 235 acres of this land on the western slope of the Conococheague Valley to Stephen Ulary, of Frederick Co., Md. On 19 Feb. 1754, Stephen and Elizabeth Ulary sold 25 acres of the same land to Ludwig Miller. On 31 May 1754, Stephen and Elizabeth Ularick of Frederick Co., Md., sold 86 acres of their 1754 purchase to Daniel Ularick. In August of 1754, Stephen Ulrich was appointed overseer of roads in Conococheague Hundred, Frederick Co., for 1755. Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich had by now sold 111 acres of their 1752 purchase and in 1764 he was given a warrant to resurvey the remaining 124 acres and to add some contiguous vacant land. The survey was completed in 1766 and on 29 Sept. 1767, Stephen was granted a patent for 694 acres which he now called Good Neighbour. Also, on 29 Sept. 1761, Stephen Ulrick and Nicholas Martin of Frederick Co., Md., received a patent for 425 acres for which they had obtained a warrant on 27 Aug. 1759. This tract was called Stephen's Hope and included a former survey, Much Grumbling, which had not been taken up by Jacob Funk.

Jacob Stutzman had taken up an adjoining tract, Good Luck, in 1761. In 1763, Stephen Ulrich and Jacob Stutzman attended a Great Council of the Brethren at Conestoga, Pa., perhaps as church elders. On 10 April 1767, "Stephen Ulrick of Fredrick Co., Md." and Jacob Stutzman were naturalized together in Pennsylvania.{42} They did this by affirmation rather than oath, since their religion did not allow swearing even for this purpose. In 1773, Stephen Ulrick was a witness to the will of Jacob Stutzman and signed in German.{39} Jacob died in 1775, in Peters Twp., Cumberland Co., Pa., and his widow married Stephen Ulrich about 1782.{39}

In 1768 and 1769, Stephen sold 345 acres of Good Neighbour in four pieces, but the deeds no longer mentioned his wife Elizabeth and she may have been dead by this time. On 4 May 1772, Nicholas Martin, Dunker minister to the Conococheague Valley Congregation, wrote that "Brother Stephen ... has now become more reluctant (to be ordained) because he thinks that he has become estranged to the brethren throughout the country because he became naturalized".{43} This is supposed to refer to Stephen "Woller", Martin's assistant. The letter also referred to the fact that "brother Stephen's" brother John had moved away. John Ulrich had moved to Bedford Co., Pa., prior to 1772, so "brother Stephen" may well have been Stephen Ulrich.{43} John Ulrich (in 1755 and 1768) and Daniel Ulrich (in 1754) both had land grants in what became Washington

Co., Md.{28}

On 25 March 1782, Stephen Ulrich and Hannah Stutzman filed a pre-marital agreement in Washington Co., Md., (formed from Frederick Co., in 1776) "for and in consideration of a marriage intended by God's permission to be shortly had and solemnized between the said Stephen Ulrich and Hanna Stootsman...".{44} The intent of this agreement was that the previous children of each would not inherit from the estate of the other spouse. A 1783 tax list of Washington Co. shows Stephen Wolery with 324 acres (part of Germany), three horses and three cattle.{39} The deed books of Washington Co., Md., contain a record{45} in which the heirs of Stephen Ulrich sold some of their inheritance. A partial quotation from that record will suffice to show the genealogical content.

> "This Indenture made the seventeenth day of June in the year of our Lord one Thousand seven hundred and eighty five Between David Ulrik, Stephen Ulrick, Samuel Ulrich, Jacob Stutsman, Christina Stutsman, Daniel Miller, Elizabeth Miller, George Butterbaugh, Mary Butterbaugh, Henry Butterbaugh, Hannah Butterbaugh, Jacob Liear, Lidia Liear all of Washington County and State of Maryland of the one part" for fifteen hundred and ten pounds sold to John Cushwa of the same county part of a tract of land called Good Neighbour which contained 322 acres. According to the recorded deed, David Ulrich, Stephen Ulrich, Samuel Ulrich, Jacob Stutsman, George Butterbaugh (Puterbaugh), Henry Butterbaugh, and Jacob Lear (Liehr) signed in German, David Miller signed in English and Christina Stutsman, Elizabeth Miller, Mary Butterbaugh, Hannah Butterbaugh, and Lidey Liear signed by mark. The thirteen people appeared before two Justices of the Peace on 17 June 1785 to confirm the deed and "at the same time came Barbara, wife of the said David Ulrich & Susannah wife of the said Stephen Ulrich & Mary the wife of the sd. Samuel Ulrich" and relinquished all their right and claim of dower in the tract sold. On 21 June 1785, Johannes Cushwa (German signature) mortgaged his purchase to David Ulrich, Stephen Ulrich, Samuel Ulrich, Jacob Stutsman, Daniel Miller, George Butterbaugh, Henry Butterbaugh, and Jacob Liear.
> In 1792, the heirs sold five and a half more acres.{39}

The list of Stephen Ulrich's children, as given below, has been developed over the past three or more decades by several researchers working on the Ulrich and related families. In the process of development, many references to original material and credits to contributors have been lost. Among the contributors were: Calvin Ulry{46}, George H. Liebegott{20}, L. W. Shultz{47}, Mrs. Kenneth H. Roehl{48}, Lela Eby{49}, and John Hale Stutesman{39}.

Daniel Ulrich, usually included in this list of children, has been omitted here. Neither he nor his heirs are mentioned in the 1785 settlement, although he was probably alive and certainly had living children at that time. It could be argued, however, that he had previously or separately received his inheritance. However, since he purchased land as early as 1754 and is supposed to be the father of "oldest daughter" Susannah, b. 3 May 1759 (m. Jacob Butterbaugh), he appears to have been too old to fit into Stephen's family. Although all the birthdates in the list below appear to have been merely estimated and adjusted to present a consistent picture, the addition of a son Daniel who must be at least ten years older than any of the others does not seem reasonable. Daniel Ulrich's will, made 2 Jan. 1781, in Peters Twp., Cumberland Co., Pa., and probated 14 Dec. 1792, in Bedford County, Pa., was witnessed by Conrad Brumbach and Hanns (John) Ulrich and is written in German.

   This is probably the one in the 1790 census of Huntingdon Co., Pa. He married Susanna Rench (ca. 1760 - 1815). Bedford Co., Pa., Deed Book AA, p. 332, states that Stephen and Susanna Ulrich of Huntingdon Co., Pa., on 9 Aug. 1801, were selling land called Wilmington which he had been granted on 19 March 1799 -- 380.5 acres on Three Springs Branch of Yellow Creek in Morrison's Cove. In 1802 he received a patent for land in Madison Township, Montgomery Co., Ohio. His will was made in 1822 and probated there on 30 March 1836. His son Samuel was born in 1794 in Huntingdon Co., Pa., according to a history of Montgomery Co., Ohio.

3. Christina Ulrich b. ca. 1752 d. ca. 1810
   She married Jacob Stutzman, Jr. (ca. 1746 -1816), who was later her stepbrother. They settled the site of Johnstown, Pa., about 1790 and went to Montgomery Co., Ohio, about 1810.

SAMUEL ULRICH, son of Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich, was born about 1754, probably in York Co., Pa., or Frederick Co., Md. About 1780, he married Mary Brumbaugh, daughter of Johann Jacob and Mary Elizabeth (Angle) Brumbaugh, who lived in Frederick County, Md. She is said to have been born in 1767 -- see discussion under the Brumbaugh family. Samuel and Mary were living in Frederick Co., Maryland, in 1785 (see deed quoted under Stephen Ulrich, above), but it was not long before they moved to Bedford County, Pa. On 12 Dec. 1785, Samuel Ulrich and Jacob Brumbaugh received a warrant for 200 acres in Bedford Co. Stephen Ulrich was issued a warrant on the same day and took up an adjoining tract. In May, 1786, Samuel Ulrich and Jacob Brumbaugh received a patent for 289 acres of land in the south end of Morrison's Cove, Bedford Co., near the present town of New Enterprise. They called the tract Broomfield. In 1789, Samuel was taxed for 200 acres, 2 horses and 2 cows in Woodberry Township there. David, Daniel, and Stephen Ullery were on that tax list also.{3} In the 1790 census of Bedford Co., Samuel's family contained 1 male under 16, 1 male over 16, and five females. These would have been Samuel and Mary, their son Stephen and daughters Elizabeth, Maria, Catherine and Hannah. Daniel, John, and Samuel were again taxed in Woodberry Twp. for 1795.{3} The 1800 census of Bedford County shows the Samuel Ulrich family with one male, age 26-44 [Samuel], 2 females age 10-15 [Catherine and Hannah], and 1 female age 26-44 [Mary].

Brumbaugh{3} quotes a letter from Mary's grandneice Barbara Snoeberger as follows: "Maria went for their cows one evening and became lost in the woods. The wolves came near her and she had to climb a tree. The family blew horns which she could hear, but, as she could not make them hear her calls and did not dare to get down from the tree, she was compelled to stay there all night. The wolves left in the morning, and she found she was in sight of her home where she had left a nursing baby."

Samuel Ulrich was an Elder in the German Baptist Brethren Church and perhaps the first minister of the church in Woodberry Twp. "For many years he was a noted speaker and the Elder in charge of the Woodbury Church."{3}

Samuel and Mary were involved in the settlement of her father's estate (see Brumbaugh family) and are therefore mentioned in many deeds and agreements in Bedford County, starting in about 1804.

In the 1810 census, the only Samuel Ulrich recorded for Pennsylvania was a resident of Lancaster Co., but he was under age 26 with no children given. On 15 April 1812, Samuel and Mary Ulry of Woodberry Twp. sold part of Broomfield to Jacob Brown. This had been granted to Jacob Brumbaugh and Samuel Ulry. Another part was sold to

SAMUEL ULRICH, son of Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich, was born about 1754, probably in York Co., Pa., or Frederick Co., Md. About 1780, he married Mary Brumbaugh, daughter of Johann Jacob and Mary Elizabeth (Engle) Brumbaugh, who lived in Frederick County, Md. She is said to have been born in 1757 -- see discussion under the Brumbaugh family. Samuel and Mary were living in Frederick Co., Maryland, in 1783 (see deed quoted under Stephen Ulrich, above), but it was not long before they moved to Bedford County, Pa. In May, 1785, Samuel Ulrich and Jacob Brumbaugh received a patent for 309 acres of land in the south end of Morrison's Cove, Bedford Co., near the present town of New Enterprise. They called the tract Brumfield. In 1789, Samuel was taxed for 200 acres, 2 horses and 2 cows in Woodberry Township there. David, Daniel, and Stephen Ulrich were on that tax list also.[7] In the 1790 census of Bedford Co., Samuel's family contained 1 male under 16, 1 male over 16, and five females. These would have been Samuel and Mary, their son Stephen and daughters Elizabeth, Maria, Catherine and Hannah. Samuel, John, and Daniel were again taxed in Woodberry Twp. for 1796.[8] The 1800 census of Bedford County shows the Samuel Ulrich family with one male, age 26-44 (Samuel), 2 females age 10-15 (Catherine and Hannah), and 1 female age 26-44 (Mary).

Brumbaugh[9] quotes a letter from Mary's grandniece Barbara Brumbaugh as follows: "Maria went for their cows one evening and became lost in the woods. riage. He then married Mary Holden in Jackson township, and now resides at Sandwich, Canada West.

ISAAC PIERCE was born in Virginia, March 25, 1785, and was married to Elizabeth Anderson, who was born June 5, 1782. He removed thence to this county; and after a year's residence at Economy, settled in Jefferson township, where his son Isaac A. Pierce now lives, 1½ miles north of Hagerstown. His chief object in coming north was to get away from slavery; and he brought with him two slaves to emancipate them. He was early enlisted in the temperance cause, and was perhaps the first person in the township to dispense with liquor at log rollings. His neighbors on being informed of his intention, told him they would not come to assist him. On making known his condition to two or three friends at a distance, they advised him to adhere to his purpose, and came with their teams to his relief. His neighbors seeing the work going on successfully without their help, yielded, and joined the company in the afternoon. Mr. P. afterward joined the Olive Branch church. He had six children, five sons and a daughter, all of whom were married, as follows: Thomas was married to Nancy Hursh, in Missouri, whither he went in 1831; Andrew, to Fanny Brown, and lives in Henry Co.; Sarah, to Nehemiah Cheeseman, living in town; Henry, to Mary Mendenhall, and lives in Iowa; Ezra to Sarah T. Cheeseman, and died in Kansas; Isaac A., to Fanny Pollard and resides on the homestead of his father.

MOSES ROBERTSON was born in Virginia, March 3, 1788. His parents died when he was quite young. After one year's service in the war of 1812, he removed to Indiana in 1813, and settled near Jacksonburg, in the present township of Harrison. He joined the Christian church in 1815. About 1820, he removed to Henry county. In 1857, he sold his farm, and removed to Hagerstown, where his wife died July 27, 1861, aged 72 years. After the organization of the Christian church in Hagerstown, he became a member. He is said to have been "a liberal Christian, both in views and means;" exemplary in his deportment, and faithful in the discharge of social and domestic duties. He died in Hagerstown, Nov. 11, 1868, in his 81st year.

ADAM STONEBRAKER was born in Pennsylvania in 1781, removed to Ohio in 1804, and settled in 1821 one mile south of Hagerstown, in the wilderness, there being but a few families in the township. He resided here until his death, in 1870. He had served under Gen. Harrison in the year 1813, in the last war with Great Britain; and had been for 25 years previous to his death a member of the Christian Church at Mount Pleasant. He married Catharine Herald, and after her death, Magdelena Smith. He had nine children: 1. John, who resides at Blountsville. 2. George, who married Jane Brown, and settled, in 1830, near his father, and died in 1850, aged 45 years, leaving four sons, William, James, John, and Joseph. James resides in Huntington Co.; the other three in Hagerstown, all engaged in mercantile business. 3 James, at Smithfield. 4. Abraham, at Blountsville. 5. Isaac, Hagerstown. 6. Sarah S., wife of Wm. Felton, Blountsville. 7. Bettie (deceased), first, the wife of J. Burkett, afterward, of —— Leliop. 8. Tena, wife of F. Waller, Blountsville. 9. Martha, wife of M. Switser, Cambridge City.

JOHN ULRICH, SEN., settled in 1823 on Nettle creek, below Test's woolen factory, having purchased a large portion of the land below to Hagerstown. His sons were Daniel, who resides in Dalton township; John, who settled on the farm now owned by Andress S. Wiggins, one mile north-west of town, and died about ten years ago; David, who succeeded to his father's farm, which he recently sold, and removed to Illinois; Jacob, who removed to Kansas and died there. He had two daughters: Elizabeth, wife of Abraham Teeter; and Christina, wife of Zachariah Albaugh. John, son of John, Jun., owns the mills above town.

NEW GARDEN TOWNSHIP.

This township, originally including the present township of Franklin, was one of the six townships into which the county was divided in 1817. It is bounded on the east by Franklin township, south by Wayne and Center, west by Green, north by Randolph county. Its length, north and south, is 7 miles; its breadth, about 3¾ miles, containing removed with his father to Wayne County, Tenn. He was married in 1794 to Nancy Maulby, also a native of North Carolina, born Nov. 21, 1771. To them were born eight children, all of whom lived to be over fifty years of age, and four of whom are still living—Lewis, Ellinor, Rachel and John. Lydia, Sophia, Larkin, Henry and an adopted son, William, are deceased. In 1819 he removed to Wayne County, Ind., and entered a tract of land, residing here till his death, engaged in farming and tanning. He built a tannery on his farm, the marks of the old vats being still visible. He died at the age of eighty-nine years and his wife, aged ninety-seven. They were members of the Society of Friends.

Daniel Ulrich, retired farmer, section 4, Dalton Township, was born in Bedford County, Pa., Sept. 23, 1794, a son of John and Christina (Brombaugh) Ulrich, who were natives of Pennsylvania, of German descent. His youth was spent in assisting his father on the farm and working in his father's saw, and carding mill. He was married in 1816 to Catherine Holsinger, of Pennsylvania, by whom he had five children, three now living—Samuel, Christina and Catherine. John and Susannah are deceased. His wife died in 1828, and in 1829 he married Mrs. Catherine (Clapper) Hoover. Six children were born to them—David, Martin, Elizabeth, Annie (deceased), Rosanna and Daniel D. Mr. Ulrich and his father came to Wayne County, Ind., with their families in 1822, and settled on the land where our subject now lives. They purchased 800 acres of Government land. His father died about thirty years after coming to this county. Mr. Ulrich is now eighty-nine years of age and has retired from active life, but still retains his mental and physical vigor to a remarkable extent. He has been an active member of the German Baptist church for many years. His wife died in June, 1863.

CHAPTER XIII.

GREEN TOWNSHIP.

WHERE LOCATED.—BOUNDARY LINES.—NUMBER OF ACRES.—FIRST ELECTION.—ITS WATER SUPPLY.—POPULATION.—VALUATION.—COMPARISON OF WEALTH.—EARLY SETTLEMENT.—PIONEERS.—SUNDRIES, RELATING TO BUSINESS.—WILLIAMSBURG.—WHEN FOUNDED.—BY WHOM PLATTED.—LOCATION.—POPULATION.—BUSINESS OF 1870 AND 1884.—CHURCHES AND LODGES.—BIOGRAPHICAL.

WHERE IT IS LOCATED.

This is in the north tier of townships, and is the central one, it being eight miles on each side from the east and west county lines. It is bounded on the north by Randolph County, on the east by New Garden and Webster townships, on the south by Webster, Centre and Clay townships, and on the west by Clay and Perry townships. It is five miles square, with an addition on the south side of three and one-half sections, extending in the center two miles south of the square, the last mile being a half section. Just why this county of Wayne has been cut into townships out of all reasonable shape is hard to determine. The cultivation of symmetry has not been chronic. The area thus covered is twenty-eight and one-half square miles, or 18,240 acres of land. Of this amount 18,182.68 acres are found on the assessment roll, which shows a closer assessment, or more arable land, than many other townships in the county. The township was organized November, 1821, and the first election was held at the house of Seth May. It is a good township of land and the farmers have placed themselves in an independent position financially.

The principal stream in the township is Green's Fork, Hist. of Wayne Co Ind Vol II

FETTER FAMILY OF PENNSYLVANIA--from The Press and Journal, Middletown, PA, 8-29-1979, "Our Keystone Families" by Schuyler C. Brossman

On September 10, 1731, Michael Fetter, Katrina Feter, Helena Feter, Johanna Fetter and another Katrina Feter, all above the age of 16 arrived at Philadelphia There were two children under the age of 16, Michael and Katrina. They arrived on the ship "Pennsylvania Merchant" commanded by John Stedman which came from Rotterdam by the way of Dover, England.

Michael Fetter bought 100 acres of land in Philadelphia County, PA on October 26, 1736. Michael Feather, Jun. bought 25 acres next to Michael Feather, Sen. in Alsace Twp., Philadelphia Co. (now Berks County) on June 10, 1749. On the same Warrantee Twp. Map of Alsace Twp., Berks Co., the name appears as Fetter.

On March 21, 1768 Michael Feather bought 300 acres of land on Dunnings Creek in Bedford Co., about eight miles from present Bedford, PA. By the time of the Revolutionary War he owned additional land in Frankstown Twp., Bedford Co. Tax records indicate there were 189 acres in this tract, but the original warrant granted to Peter Van Bushkirk in 1762 was for 250 acres.

Michael built a grist mill on this property and there was a blockhouse type of fort located next to the mill called Fetter's Fort. At one time there were as many as 25 men able to bear arms in the fort. The site is now called the Vipond Estate and is located two miles west of Hollidaysburg, PA.

Michael and Catharine had seven boys and two girls: George, Michael, Jr., Daniel, Jacob, John, Peter, Samuel, Elizabeth and ______. After Michael Sr.'s death on the homestead on Dunnings Creek the property was sold to Jacob Fetters by the others: George, Michael, Jr., Daniel, John, Peter and Samuel as well as John Helms and Amos Edwards, the last two possible brothers-in-law.

By the early 1800's the children started moving west. Daniel and his wife Susanna (Shoup), daughter of Sebastian Shoup, and Peter and his wife Eve (Dibert), daughter of John Dibert, moved to Randolph Twp., Montgomery, Co. Ohio in 1806. Samuel and his wife Hannah (Ullery), daughter of John Ullery (Ulrich?) moved further west to Miami Co, Ohio in 1811. Michael Jr's. children lived in Lewis Co., Kentucky and Adams and Clinton Co., Ohio, when Michael Died in 1828.

Hannah
[illegible]

George and 10 of his children moved to Stark Co., Ohio, in 1812. Two of George's sons, Jacob and peter, remained in Huntingdon co., PA, although Peter could have moved west later. Jacob died in 1815 in Antis Twop, just north of the city of Altoona, PA. He left 10 children, six of which were under age, the youngest Michael, only three months old.

Today there are still Fetters-Feters living in Bedford and Blair Co., PA as well as the cities of Altoona, Lewistown, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, PA. They are also found in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and parts west.

Thanks to Mr. George E. Fetters ('42) who sent this information along to us. He adds: "My father is still living in Lewistown, PA. He was born in Tyrone on 24 September 1903. I was able to go back seven generations in Blair Co. My grandparents, George Herbert and Alta (Classco) are buried in Grandview Cemetery, Tyrone. His parents, George and Catharine (Dannley), as well as George's mother Mary (Sodders) Fetters are in the Birmingham Cemetery. Mary's husband Michael was only three months old when he lost his father, Jacob. Mike's grandfather put his land up for the maintenance of the grandchildren. George lived in Stark Co., Ohio, but still owned land next to John Coleman in Antis Twp. This George is the oldest son of Michael who had the grist mill and fort west of Hollidaysburg."

VERY EARLY ULRICH GENEALOGY, Fred [illegible]. Ullery

ULRICH--ULRICK, ULLERY, ULLREY, ULERY, ULREY, etc. There are many spelling variants which evolved from the Swiss or German ULRICH. In America, there are two known strains. Both strains have branches using different spelling variants. Herein, most of the disclosures relate to the earlier strain, and subsequently, brief disclosures of the later strain are set forth.

Earlier Strain. With due respect of some unsupported incompatible writings (opinions), the present disclosures are believed to be the most plausible and reliable conclusions of known evidence of record and prevalent traditions.

The immigrant forefathers of this earlier strain were three Ulrich brothers: Stephen, b. c.1680; John; and one unnamed (possibly George). It has been related that they were physically short and stout; and, that they married three tall English sisters. Possibly, they married in the English seaman area of Chincoteaque Island; where, per one tradition, "they raised ponies [rounded up small wild horses known as Chincoteaque Ponies], which they swam to the mainland for sale".

It has been disclosed that Immigrant Stephen had three sons, Stephen (c.1710-c. 1784), Samuel (b. c. 1716) and David (b. 16 Mar 1717); all German Baptist preachers; that Immigrant John had three sons, John (d. 1804), Daniel (d. c. 1792) and Stephen; and, that the unnamed Immigrant brother was childless. Possibly, the unnamed brother was George who had one child Stephen, as eventually disclosed herein.

The first known land acquistions by the Ulrichs were in the area of the present Adams Co., PA. The earliest records of that area were recorded in Chester Co. The county status of that Adams County area successively changed: to Lancaster Co., 14 Oct 1728; to York Co., 14 Oct 1748; and to Adams Co., in 1800.

Probably, it was in the Adams County area that Immigrant John Ulrich, while hunting wild turkeys, fell down a precipice and was fatally impaled on a tree snag.

It has been written that an "Eldrick" (probably Stephen Ulrich, II, c. 1710-c. 1784) and a "Studsman" (probably Jacob Stutzman, Sr.) were two of the organizers of the Little Conewago Congregation, formed about 1738 near the present Hanover, PA.

Therefrom, the prevalent migrations of the Ulrichs, and associated German Baptist families, were sequentually: to the Conococheaque Creek Valley of the present Franklin Co., PA, and the present Washington Co., MD; to the Morrisons Cove area of the originally large Bedford Co., PA; to the southwestern and west central areas of Ohio, especially, Montgomery Co; and, to the central and northern areas of Indiana.

Immigrant Stephen Ulrich, (I), and Early Descendants.

Stephen Ulrich, (II), (c. 1710-c.1784), son of Immigrant Stephen (I), acquired some tracts of land in the area of the present Adams Co., PA. One tract of 100 acres was warranted to "Stephen Ulrick, Junr."; and was described as " . . adjoining his Father's Stephen Ulrick's land".

Evidently, he migrated to the Conococheaque Creek Valley early in the 1750s. Prior to 1754, Stephen Ulrich (II) acquired a large land tract in the area of the present Washington Co., MD; which was partitioned, 01 Oct 1776, from Frederick Co.; and, for which, in 1767, he received a Maryland Land Patent for 694 acres.

His wife, Elizabeth (--?--) Ulrich died c. 1760. He m. 2) c.1782, Hanna(h) (--?--) Stutzman, widow of his devout German Baptist friend and neighbor, Jacob Stutzman, Sr.; and mother-in-law of his daughter, Christina (Ulrich) Stutzman). He died c. 1784, likely in the Stutzman residence; which, by the Mason-Dixon Line, had been transferred from Maryland to Peters Twp. of the present Franklin Co., PA.

The names of, and some information about, children of Stephen (II) and Elizabeth (--?--) Ulrich are:

David Ulrich (1746-1823) m. Barbara (--?--) (c.1749-1817).
Both died in Montgomery Co., Ohio. Six sons and one daughter.
Delora Stephen Ulrich (1750-1835) m. Susannah Rench (c. 1760-1815).
Both died in Montgomery Co., Ohio. Six children.
Christina Ulrich (c.1752-c.1810) m. Jacob Stutsman, Jr., (c.1746-1816).
He died at Trotwood, Montgomery Co., Ohio. Five? sons; and one daughter Elizabeth (1774-1842) who married David Deeter (1773-1849), who donated the site for, and was an Elder of, The German Baptist Sugar Grove Church, Newton Twp., Miami Co., Ohio. My maternal g.g. grandparents. F.E.U.
Samuel Ulrich (c.1754-1822) m. Mary Brumbaugh (c.1760-).
Both died in Bedford Co., PA. Six children.
wilbur Elizabeth Ulrich (c.1752-1834) m. Daniel Miller (1755-1822).
Both died in Montgomery Co., Ohio. Nine children.
Mary Ulrich (c.1760-c.1844) m. George Butterbaugh (Puterbaugh)
(c.1759-1800). She died in Montgomery Co., Ohio; and he died in Bedford Co., PA. Five children.
Hannah Ulrich (c.1762-1798) m. Henry Butterbaugh (c.1761-c.1839), brother of George above. Both probably died in Franklin Co., PA.
Seven children known.
Lydia Ulrich (c.1756-c.1819) m. Jacob Lear (c. 1754-1812).
He died in Cambria Co., PA. Twelve children.

Samuel Ulrich, b. c. 1716, son of Immigrant Stephen Ulrich (I).

It has been written that he was a German Baptist minister of "fluent oratory and great eloquence". Also, that he had a huge physique, "weighting upwards of four hundred pounds"; that he was still living in Pennsylvania at age 86 years; and, that he died a bachelor.

David Ulrich, b. 16 Mar 1717?, son of Immigrant Stephen (I).

He was cited, probably erroneously, as a forefather of the descendants of David Ulrich (1746-1823), shown above as a son of Stephen Ulrich (II). Otherwise, no information is presently known about descendants of a David Ulrich, b. 16 Mar 1717?.

Stephen Ullery, d. 1778, son? of Immigrant John Ulrich (I). He died in the Ten Mile Creek area of the present Washington Co., PA, when that area was still part of Monongahela County, Virginia.

That he was a son of Immigrant John Ulrich (I) is plausible but unconfirmed. His descendants disclosed some traditions which, although somewhat differently construed and applied, were basically the same as some known by Ulerys of Indiana, specifically: that there were three very early immigrant Ulrich brothers; and that one of them, who had three sons(John, Daniel and Stephen), fell down a precipice while hunting wild turkeys, and was fatally impaled on a tree snag.

However, it is possible that Stephen Ullery, d. 1778, may have been a son of George "Ulric" who, in 1742, obtained a land grant for 100 acres in the Reading Twp. area of the present Adams Co., PA. In 1767, "Stephen Ulric, only son and heir of George Ulric" sold that land tract.

Stephen Ullery, d. 1778, was survived by his wife Susanna, who m. 2) George Praker; and by the six following children:

Susanna Ullery (-).
John Ulrey (c.1765-1824) m. Elizabeth Arnold (-).
  Ten children. They remained on about half of his fathers land.
Daniel Ullery (-) m. Sarah (--?--) (-).
  Children unknown. In 1811, they resided in Warren Co., Ohio.
Stephen Ulery (II) (1771-1826) m. Christina Kunkel or Conkle (1774-c.1846). Thirteen children. They remained on about half of his father's land.
Jacob Ulrey (1768-1838) m. Hannah West (-1842). Nine children.
  He was born 22 Dec 1768 near Frederick, MD (town? or county?). When he was a small boy, his parents migrated to the present Washington Co., PA. In 1794, he, his wife and one child went down the Ohio River on a flat boat to Louisville, KY. Subsequently, they back tracked to Ohio, and settled, 11 Mar 1798, in the present Monroe Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio.
David Ullery (-), no information.

ephen Ulery, d. 1778, son? of Immigrant John Ulrich (I), he died in what is now the area of the present Washington Co., PA, when at area was still part of Augusta County, Virginia.

at he was a son of Immigrant John Ulrich (I) is plausible but unconrmed. His descendants maintained that tradition, although rnames, differently spelled and pronounced, were basically the same were known as Ulery or Ulrich, specifically. Thus there were ree very early immigrant Ulrich progenitors and that one of them, the e three sons (John, Daniel, and Stephen). [illegible] a translated white ntine [illegible] and was initially recorded as a [illegible].

wever, it is possible that Stephen (Ulery), d. 1778, may have been a n of George "Ulrich" who, in 1762, obtained a land grant for 200 res in the Reading Twp. area of the present Adams Co., PA. In 1767, ephen Ulrich, only son and heir of George Ulrich, sold that land tract.

ephen Ulery, d. 1778, was survived by his wife Susanna, who m. 2) orge Flannery, and by the following children:

Susanna Ulery (-).
John Ulery (c.1765-1825?) m. Elizabeth Arnold (-).
 Ten children. They remained on about half of his father's land.
Daniel Ulery (-) m. Sarah (---) (-).
 Children unknown. In 1811, they resided in Warren Co., Ohio.
Stephen Ulery (II) (1767?-1822?) m. Christina Kunkel or Gonkle (1772-c.1840). Thirteen children. They remained on about half of his father's land.
Jacob Ulery (1760-1838) m. Hannah Root (-1842?). Nine children.
 He was born 20 Dec 1760 near Frederick, MD (town? or county?).
 When he was a small boy, his parents migrated to the present Washington Co., PA. In 1789, he, his wife and one child went down the Ohio River on a flat boat to Louisville, KY. Subsequently, they were located in Ohio, and settled 11 Mar 1795, in the present Monroe Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio.

STEPHEN ULRICH

(? - c1784)

July 1, 1977

On June 17, 1785 the following heirs of Stephen ULRICH sold 322 acres of a tract called Good Neighbour for 1,510 pounds to John CUSHWA:

BUTTERBAUGH, George & Mary
" , Henry & Hannah
LEAR, Jacob & Lidia
MILLER, Daniel & Elizabeth
STUTZMAN, Jacob & Christina
ULRICH, David & Barbara
" , Stephen & Susannah
" , Samuel & Mary

This deed was recorded December 16, 1785 in Washington County, Maryland Land Record Book D, pp.588-591. It is official evidence that Stephen Ulrich Sr. was dead.

On March 25, 1782, "Stephen ULRICK of Washington County, Maryland" made an agreement with "Hanah STOOTSMAN"..for and in consideration of a marriage intended by God's permission to be shortly had and solemnized between the said Stephen Ulrich and Hanna Stootsman.." that their ~~children~~ heirs from previous marriages would not share in the new joint estate but would draw only upon their former inheritances. This is official evidence that Stephen Ulrich was alive in early 1782.

No will or record of an estate settlement has yet been found; so we must estimate that Stephen Ulrich died in the period 1782-1785, probably circa 1784, and probably on his land in Washington County, Maryland.

The land called Good Neighbour was patented to "Stephen ULRICK of Frederick County, Maryland" on September 29, 1767. It lies now in Washington County, Maryland, along the eastern flank of Powell Mountain, northeast of Clear Spring, just below the junction of Maryland Highway #57 and Pennsylvania Highway #75.

The Patent described Good Neighbour as a tract containing 694 acres, so the sale of 1785 was for less than half of Stephen Ulrich's land. I have not yet found a record of the disposition of the remainder of this land; nor have I worked out a clear history of its purchase. Apparently it was purchased in the 1750's or early 1760's. A Warrant for survey was issued September 24, 1764 but was not executed. On March 8, 1766, this Warrant was renewed and a survey was completed. No doubt the land records of Frederick County, Maryland, Washington County, Maryland, and perhaps Franklin and Cumberland Counties in Pennsylvania hold the answers to this mystery.

In any case, there is documentary evidence that the land of Jacob STUTZMAN called Good Luck was located just to the northeast of Good Neighbour.

On April 10, 1767 "Stephen ULRICK of Frederick County, Maryland" was naturalized in Pennsylvania with his neighbor Jacob STUTZMAN. (Penna Archives, Second Series, Vol. II, p.399). On May 24, 1772, Nicholas MARTIN, the minister to the Dunker congregation in the Conococheague valley wrote to Alexander MACK Junior, a Brethren leader in Pennsylvania about Jacob Stutzman's health, and he added "Brother Stephen...has now become more reluctant (to be ordained) because he thinks that he has become estranged to the brethren throughout the country because he became naturalized..." (The Brethren in Colonial America, Donald Durnbaugh, Elgin, Illinois, 1967).

Durnbaugh commented "Brother Stephen is doubtless (the) Stephen WALLER listed by Morgan Edwards as Martin's assistant (in 1770)". Donald Bowman and I have speculated that "Stephen Waller" was, in fact, Stephen Ulrich, a name often spelled "Wollry" with variations.

This speculation is buttressed by the fact that Nicholas Martin's letter cited above also stated that the brother of "Brother Stephen" had "moved away". John ULRICH, a brother of Stephen Ulrich, had settled in Bedford County, Pennsylvania prior to 1772. (His will ~~of 1804~~ was probated in 1804 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania).

In 1773 "Stephen ULRICH" witnessed the will of his neighbor Jacob STUTZMAN and signed his name in German script.

I have not yet found a record of the [illegible] of this land [illegible] only a [illegible] history of its purchase. Apparently it was purchased in the 1760's or early 1770's. A warrant for survey was issued September 29, 1764 but [illegible] On March 8, 1771, this warrant was renewed and a survey was completed. [illegible] the land records of Frederick County, Maryland, [illegible] County, Maryland, and [illegible] in Pennsylvania hold the answers to this mystery.

In any case, there is documentary evidence that the land of [illegible] was located [illegible] to the [illegible].

These brief annals indicate that Stephen Ulrich was a literate man of considerable means who was a senior member of the Dunker community on the Conococheague in the 1760's and 1770's. The age of his children show that he was born prior to 1725. The fact that he was naturalized is evidence that he was born outside the jurisdiction of the British Crown. His name and the fact that he signed his name in German script suggest that he was of German origin.

Now to move deeper into the well of time - as Thomas Mann described antiquity.

In 1763, a Stephen ULRICH sold to George WAIN (? WINE) 200 acres in Manheim Township, York County, Pennsylvania "whereon George Wain now lives" which had been warranted to Ulrich February 16, 1742. (York County Deed Book B, p.179)

It is noteworthy that Jacob Stutzman sold his land "adjoining land of Stephen Ulrich) in that area in 1761 to George WINE.

The Bureau of Land Records in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has a complete file of the warrants, surveys and patents on this land which Stephen Ulrich sold in 1763:

1742, February 16, Lancaster County Warrant No. 7 was granted to "Stephen ULRICK Jr." for 100 acres "Situate on Indian Creek a branch of the Little Conewago Creek..." When the Patent was issued in 1803 to John THOMAS, the owner at that time, the land was described as being in Conewago Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania.

1742, February 16 Lancaster County Warrant No. 8 was granted to "Stephen ULRICK Jr." for 100 acres "Situate on Little Conewago Creek..." When the Patent was issued in 1800 to Nicholas KEEFHAVER, the owner at that time, the land was described as being in Manheim Township, York County, Pennsylvania; but there was a note on the file jacket that the land was "now in Adams County".

Conewago Township of Adams County, Pennsylvania, is directly west of Hanover, York County, just across the County line. Little Conewago Creek rises to the south and flows through Conewago Township in a northwesterly direction.

In 1742, Lancaster County covered all this area. In 1749 York County was formed; and in 1800 Adams County was formed.

Thus, the warrants of 1742 were granted by Lancaster County, but in 1749 the land became part of York County. A confusing element enters the picture here as a result of a dispute over land title between Maryland and Pennsylvania for a tract called Digges Choice which is outlined in red on the accompanying map. It was eventually agreed between the two Provinces that title to that tract would belong to Maryland until a new line was drawn to mark the boundary. This was to be the Mason & Dixon Line.

So there developed inside of York County, Pennsylvania, a sort of enclave belonging to Maryland in the vicinity of Hanover. This became Heidleberg Township, almost completely surrounded by Manheim Township of York County.

The surveys of Stephen Ulrich's land make it clear that it was not part of Digges Choice, although one tract adjoined a part of Digges Choice. It is my belief that the land was in that curious long salient running northwest from the very center of Digges Choice in the present area of Conewago Township, Adams County. It is on the watershed of the Little Conewago, adjacent to Digges Choice, and near to Hanover.

So we have official evidence here that a "Stephen Ulrich Jr." was old enough in 1742 to take up 200 acres on the frontier of southern Pennsylvania just west of the present site of Hanover, on the headwaters of the Little Conewago.

And now for SERENDIPITY - In Lancaster County Warrant # 8 is the statement that this land being granted to "Stephen ULRICK Jr." was "...adjoining his Father's Stephen Ulrick's land...".

There is evidence that several members of the Ulrich family were early settlers of Digges Choice and surrounding areas of Lancaster, later York, County.

Morgan Edwards wrote in 1770 that the Little Conewago Dunker congregation was formed near to Hanover in 1738 by "ELDRICK... STUDSMAN..." and several others. It seems to me quite logical to assume that the name "Eldrick" was actually a memory of the name "Ulrich". Whether this was Stephen Ulrich Jr. or his father, Stephen Ulrich, or another member of the family cannot be determined on the basis of present evidence; but it is likely that the coincidence of the family name, the land ownership, the Dunker connection support an argument that it was Stephen Ulrich or a relative who was a founder of the Little Conewago Dunker congregation in 1738 with a "Studsman" Stutzman neighbor and co-religionist - perhaps Jacob Stutzman.

and Ivan Dilling were selected in 1935. Wayne L. Goar, William T. Stout, Elmer Bowman, Elmer Wampole and D. L. Miller were elected in 1946. Eleven of this last number are active. Frank Wampler became a member of another church, Estel McCullough became a minister and serves Beech Grove, Eber Holler is deceased and Wilson Lindsay and Paul Weimer have moved away.

A Sunday School was begun in 1868 and by 1873 there were three organized Sunday Schools; work at the Maple Grove chapel having been discontinued. The work at Olive Branch was discontinued in 1922.

The Nettle Creek Church observed its one hundredth anniversary in 1920. In 1928 the church began a remodeling program which was completed in 1940 free of debt. Brother J. O. Winger conducted the rededicatory service.

The Sisters' Aid Society was organized in 1902 and has grown into a group of organized Women's Work. Men's Work was organized in 1947.

Betty Rogers Blickenstaff is supported by this church on the India Mission field. Lynn Rogers Blickenstaff, a son of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Blickenstaff, is supported by White Branch. White Branch has an active Aid Society, having been organized since 1914.

The combined membership of the three congregations is four hundred and fifteen.

NEW HOPE

When Elders D. L. Miller, L. W. Teeter, H. C. Early, J. J. Yoder, Charles D. Bonsack, and Galen B. Royer were serving on the General Mission Board of the Church of the Brethren, they gave consent to Brethren Jacob and Sherman Rider to do mission work. It was the desire of the Rider brothers to be led by the Holy Spirit, and to carry out the command of Jesus to go into all the world and preach the Gospel. They went to Jackson County and held a revival in the number one school house near Uniontown Indiana. The people were devout and responded to the preaching and the New Hope church was organized February 3, 1891.

Brethren J. J. Spall and W. L. Ross gave timber and stone for the structure and foundation of the church building and donated much of the labor along with other people of the community.

Some of the pioneer ministers who worked with the Rider brothers were L. W. Teeter, N. E. Baker, D. F. Hoover, Davis R. Richards, H. L. Fadely, A. C. Young, Jacob Rarick, Jacob Secrist and Isaac Branson. The first election of deacons was in 1890, they were: Luther Bedel, J. J. Spall, W. L. Ross, W. P. Carpenter, W. Collins and C. Bedel. About 1900 J. J. Spall, W. L. Ross and Luther Bedel were elected to the ministry. Brother Bedel moved away leaving Brethren Spall and Ross as local ministers.

A Sunday School was organized and a prayer meeting established and the church grew spiritually.

Near 1908 the Mission Board sent W. L. Ross to work with the Sampson Hill church in Martin County, he served there for ten years and was ordained to the Eldership.

By 1916 the church was under the supervision of the District Mission Board who at that time were E. O. Norris, John Herr, Jeremiah Barnhart, J. A. Miller, and John W. Root. In 1949 the church was released from the District supervision, being able to maintain a pastor and the work of an ongoing church.

Deacons chosen later were: W. H. Ross, Ashbury Gudgel, Amos Spall, J. C. Bedel and Carey Carpenter. Brother Carpenter was chosen for the ministry in 1925, he moved to Jeffersonville, Ind., but still serves in the New Hope Church.

Women's Work was organized in 1917 and has done much good work for the church.

A few years ago a tornado damaged the church house beyond repair. Difficult times followed but the light of faith still burned. The men organized and by faithful labor and co-operation the work continued. In 1948 an additional plot was purchased back of the old church. A chapel was purchased from the United States Government. It was taken down and moved to the church ground where it was rebuilt back of the old building. It was dedicated September 12, 1948. Brother Estel McCullough preaching the dedicatory sermon. The old church of precious memory was removed.

Elders who have served the church are: L. W. Teeter, N. E. Baker, A. C. Young, D. Miller, E. O. Norris, D. W. Bowman, O. D. Werking, Jeremiah Barnhart, J. A. Miller, and Estel McCullough.

Ministers who have served as Pastors are: Arthur Hoppes, John Greenhaugh, John Smeltzer, Noah Shidler, J. W. Root, Moses Smeltzer, E. O. Norris, Jeremiah Barnhart, Carnie C. Carpenter, J. W. Garrott, Estel McCullough, Joseph Campbell, J. S. Alldredge and Floyd Brennaman.

The deacons are: Granville Murphy, Thornton Borden, and Hobart Murphy. Brother Estel McCullough is presiding elder and Brother Kenneth Fisher is Pastor. The present membership is ninety eight.

PYRMONT (North Fork)

In 1828 David Ulery and family emigrated by wagon from Montgomery Country, Ohio, and settled along the North Fork of the Wild Cat Creek, in Carroll and Tippecanoe Counties. There were sixteen persons, of whom eleven were members of the church; David Ulery and wife, son, Samuel Ulery and wife, son-in-law, John Shively and wife, David and Leonard Ulery, Christian Replogle and wife, and Joseph Replogle.

The father, David Ulery, was a deacon. A church was partly organized in 1829 and Samuel Ulery was chosen deacon. There seems to have been some little association of this band with those who were settling along Deer Creek in the north part of Carroll County. In 1830 Jacob Brower and a Brother Garber came from Ohio and did some preaching. At this time Samuel Ulery and John Shively were called to the ministry. In 1831 the first communion was held in a barn just errected by David Ulery. The framework of this barn is still standing on the farm which until recently was owned by John Root.

In 1832 the congregation was fully organized. There were sixteen members. In addition to the ones already mentioned, there were John Wagoner and wife, John Cripe and wife, Samuel Wagoner, Esther Wagoner and Joel Fouts. Leonard Ulery had died in 1830. "Meetings were held every two weeks at the cabins or barns of members and in pleasant weather they worshipped in the groves—God's first temples."

In 1833 the church lost by death one of its ministers, Samuel Ulery. The next year there came from Ohio John Metzger and wife, who settled in the southern part of the district near the Middle Fork of Wild Cat Creek. The Brethren at once recognized his fitness for service. He was elected deacon 1834 and called to the ministry in 1835. He at once magnified his holy calling and soon became a power as a preacher in these early days. In 1843 he and John Shively were ordained to the eldership.

In 1845 the church had grown to such an extent that it was considered best to effect a division. Elder John Shively took charge of the north organization, then called the North Fork, now Pyrmont, while Elder John Metzger had the oversight of the southern part, then known as Middle Fork, now Rossville. From now on their histories diverge, though in recent years the two churches are served by the same pastor.

The pioneer family was already passing away. Susan Ulery, wife of David Ulery died in 1845 and her husband followed in 1849.

Leonard Blickenstaff and Eli Troxel were elected to the ministry in 1847 and 1851, respectively. Jacob Wagoner and Aaron Ulery were elected deacons. "In 1852 Jacob Wagoner donated a plot from his farm at the village of Pyrmont, on which was erected the first church of worship. It was 40x60 and was built of heavy timbers such as walnut, poplar and oak, in which the forests so richly abounded. The building committee was Daniel Wagoner, Jacob Wagoner, and Christian Shively; Henry Burkholder and William Freeze were carpenters. No dedication services were held, but a communion opened the forty eight years of service of this "noble structure."

1856, Jacob Ulery was elected to the ministry; Isaac Ulery and Jacob Cripe were elected deacons, and Daniel Wagoner died. Daniel Metzger and Daniel Cripe were elected deacons in 1857; Jacob Wagoner and Jacob Cripe were called to the ministry. The latter died in 1858. 1859 Daniel Cripe was elected minister; 1860, Samuel W. Ulery and John Felix, deacons.

During the years that followed a number of members moved to Illinois. Some of them later moved back. In 1865 Isaac Cripe moved in from the Howard church. Two years later he and Jacob Wagoner were ordained to the eldership. In 1872 the church territory was again divided, the part in Tippecanoe County being called Fairview. Of this new division John Shively became elder, assisted by Samuel Ulery, a minister. Isaac Cripe and Jacob Wagoner retained charge of North Fork. The privilege was given to the members of the original congregation to hold their letters in which ever congregation they chose.

A Sunday School was organized and conducted for a while in 1866. In 1881 the Old Order element took from this church about ninety members, including Joseph Wagoner, minister, Abraham Wagoner and Daniel Metzger; deacons. In 1888 the Sunday School was reorganized, with John Reiff as superintendent. Soon after this regular quarterly council meetings were held and reports kept of proceedings. For the accommodations of those living in the east part of the district a church 30x40 was erected. The house is still standing, though the work was abandoned years ago.

Since 1873 the church has called the following brethren to the ministry: John Ulery and Joseph Wagoner, 1873, David A. Hufford, 1877 (moved to North Dakota, 1897), D. L. Barnhart and Grant F. Wagoner, 1907, Willard H. Hufford and Fred Replogle, 1915 (Willard H. Hufford died in 1927 and Fred Replogle moved in 1924), Glenn Wagoner was elected to the ministry in 1927; installed, 1928, and died in 1931, Frank Replogle, a minister, and wife, moved into the congregation in 1920 and moved out in 1931. From time to time ministers moved into the congregation: George W. Strong came from Pennsylvania, 1877, Leonard D. Wagoner from Middle Fork, 1877 and died the next year, L. T. Holsinger and E. M. Cobb came in 1899, also Merton Holsinger, son of L. T. and a minister. Brother L. T. Holsinger moved to Rossville in 1907 and E. M. Cobb to Elgin, Illinois, 1908, Merton Holsinger moved in 1907, Brother Jeremiah Barnhart came from Fairview in 1909. S. S. Neher moved in, in 1921 and moved out in 1922, Isaac R. Beery came in 1923 and moved out in 1925.

When brethren L. T. Holsinger and E. M. Cobb came in 1899, the church at once thought of a new house of worship. The old house was torn down March 12, 1900, and the same day work was begun on the new one. Much of the hauling was done by the members. The new house was dedicated November 18, 1900, D. L. Miller of Mount Morris, Illinois, preaching the dedicatory sermon. Brother H. B. Brumbaugh of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, and a number of adjoining ministers were present. Brother Miller gave a series of Bible Land talks. These closed with a love feast, which was also the beginning of a series of meetings held by Elder Isaac Frantz.

This church house, built and dedicated in 1900, burned to the ground December 27, 1925. Services were held in the nearby school house until the church was rebuilt. In less than a year a new church was erected on the old foundation. Brother Otho Winger preached the dedicatory sermon November 14, 1926, which was followed by a series of meetings led by Brother Isaac B. Wike.

In 1932, the church celebrated its one hundred years of service. At that time the membership was one hundred and fifty. The church had had a Sunday School and Aid Society for many years. The Men's Work was organized in 1940. Since that time the men have operated a farm for half. The fellowship of tilling, sowing, and reaping has contributed much to the financial and spiritual growth of the church.

A Missionary Society called The Fellowship Circle for all women and girls of the church was organized in 1950. The church was remodeled in 1950, adding a modern kitchen and rest rooms.

Pyrmont is the birthplace of two India missionaries. A. Raymond Cottrell was born March 21, 1884, and has served as a medical missionary since 1913. He with his physician wife, have ministered, not only in physical healing, but in spiritual health to multitudes of India's needy folk. Rosa B. Wagoner was born February 5, 1885 and married John I. Kaylor in August, 1911. Together they went to India in October, 1911. Rosa died at Bulsar, October 24, 1917 and was buried there in the English cemetery. She was the first missionary wife to die on the India field. She was a loyal worker and a noble Christian. Raymond Cottrell is a grandson and Rosa Wagoner Kaylor was a great-granddaughter of Jacob Wagoner who donated the land where the church now stands.

The Pyrmont Church has elected twenty-four deacons, twenty-two moved in, twenty-one have moved out, thirteen died while serving the local church and seven were elected to the ministry. Six deacons are now living in the church. Deacons who have served here are the following: Stephen Metzger, Daniel Wagoner, David Ulery, Samuel Ulery, John

In 1921 it was decided to employ a pastor. There have been five pastors. They are: S. S. Neher Oct. 1921-1922, I. R. Beery 1923-1925, Milton Early during the summer of 1938, Robert L. Sink 1939-1946, G. L. Wine became pastor 1946 and is the present pastor.

After the death of Lulu Root, daughter of Solomon Ulery, Elder John Root offered the church the Solomon Ulery farm of 134 acres at a reduction of ten thousand dollars, his gift to the church. They accepted the farm Dec. 1, 1950.

Brother David Barnhart as has been shown served the church as Elder. He lived here for forty-two years. He was a devoted man of God, with him was his brother Jerry Barnhart, these two men have been of much service to the church not only locally but have been men of influence in the District serving on many boards and much loved by those who work near them. Brother Jerry is a faithful servant of God who lends inspiration to the Pastor and all the congregation. The membership is one hundred and seventy-two.

The early history was made available by Brother John W. Vetter of Ohio who lived in the local church for more than forty years.

RICHMOND

Members of the Church of the Brethren living in Richmond, Indiana felt for a long time the need of a church in Richmond. This desire increased until the fall of 1925 when a meeting was called at the home of Brother and Sister William Hieger on Linden Avenue.

A general discussion was held on the subject. Among those present were Andrew Miller, Albert Zumbrum, Roy Colters, Susie Petry, Elmer Petry, Luther Petry, Bro. and Sister Hieger, Sister Isaiah Petry, and others.

As a result of this meeting, church services were held in various homes for a period of two or three months. Bro. Luther Petry doing most of the preaching. At this time a room was secured in the Colonial Building and services were held there for about three months. Sunday School was organized at that place. The first teachers were Samuel Wise, Edwin Hieger, and Sarah Petry. Some of the ministers helping out in these services were John Robinson, Luther Petry, Martin Hoover, and others. Bro. Martin Hoover held a short revival meeting at that time. Early in the spring of 1926 this courageous group of members were without a minister, but they kept up the faith in Sunday School and the meetings were not allowed to drag. Mark Schaeffer acted as superintendent for the first school.

About this time the old school building at West Fifth and School Streets was rented for services. The first service in this building was held on April 24, 1926. This was a business meeting. At this time, Bro. Chester Petry was engaged to hold a revival meeting in May. The next day, April 25, 1926, the first full service was held. Both Church and Sunday School got under way. Ministers who officiated about this time were Lawrence White, Ira Hiatt, Bro. Browning, and Andrew Miller. The average attendance at these services was around forty for the first year.

About the middle of June, 1926, Sister Pearl Jackson, from Losantville, Indiana, began to fill the pulpit in a regular manner. She took care of the preaching services in a highly commendable manner for fully a year. She gave up the work because of other duties that called her away.

The members were again faced by an empty pulpit, but not for long. The Mission Board of Southern Indiana lent their help and summer pastor, Wilbur O. Snyder from Tyrone, Pa., took charge of the work until fall when duty called him back to his school teaching. From this time on, Martin Hoover preached for several months. During this time a meeting was held to officially organize the church.

On October 19, 1927, letters were received from the different members. Twenty-nine charter members were received that night. Trustees were elected. The balance of the organnization was taken up on November 9, 1927. Two more members were accepted. Much enthusiasm was shown at this meeting.

Those faithful charter members were as follows: Edwin Hieger, Mary Jane Hieger, William Hieger, Lora Hieger, Lottie Kreitzer, Ohmer Kreitzer, Melvin Miller, Olive Miller, Kenneth Moss, William Moss, Mrs. William Moss, Albert Murphy, Frederick Murphy, Lawrdaughter of Leonard Wolf Sr + Catharine Cripe

Note: from obit book of Jacob SHively, son of John Shively and Esther Wolf Shively: Aunt Catharina Ulrey died Sep. 18 1872, aged 85-11-21. (if she was an aunt her maiden name was either Wolf or Shively) so it is possible Catharina was a Wolf, sister to his mother Esther, a daughter of Leonard Wolf & Catharine Cripe Wolf.

[illegible] family

The above Shively children are all children of Jacob & Susannah (Metzger) Shively.

JOHN METZGER, son of Jacob and Mary Butterbaugh Metzger, was born in Blair County, Pennsylvania, December 20, 1807. When he was twelve years old he moved near Dayton, Ohio, with his parents. On July 31, 1828, he was married to Hannah Ulrey in Montgomery County, Ohio; soon after their marriage they were both baptized. In 1834 they moved to Tippecanoe County, Indiana. In 1835 he was elected to the ministry and in 1843 was ordained as an elder. He moved near Cerro Gordo, Illinois, in 1861 and devoted much of his time to preaching. He went for miles to fill appointments in localities where there were but few members, making most of these trips on horseback; sometimes he would walk rather than disappoint a congregation. Through his preaching hundreds of people came into the church. He could fluently read and speak both German and English. Sometimes he would preach in English about forty minutes, then excuse himself to the English part of the congregation and preach in German. He was the moderator of the district meeting of Southern Illinois for fifteen years, served on many district committees, and was a member of the Standing Committee sixteen times. In 1878 he built a meetinghouse in Cerro Gordo at his own expense, and, in 1881, moved from the farm into Cerro Gordo. His second marriage was to Permelia Wolfe in 1889. While his residence was maintained in Cerro Gordo, the late winters of his life were spent at La Verne, California. He had preached in nearly all the principal cities between the Atlantic and the Pacific. He died in Cerro Gordo, on May 25, 1896.

LEONARD J. WAGONER.

The venerable Leonard J. Wagoner, one of the oldest living citizens in Clay township, Carroll county, who for many years was prominent as a farmer in this county and who now lives retired on his farm of one hundred and fifty-four acres, is a native of Clay township, born on February 21, 1839.

Mr. Wagoner is the son of John and Mary (Cripe) Wagoner, the former of whom was born in Pennsylvania and who emigrated with his parents to Montgomery county, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. The latter was born near Dayton, Ohio, and was there married to John Wagoner, who had been previously married to Miss Winebright, who bore him five children, all of whom are deceased. Of these children, Elizabeth married David Ulrey, and they lived and died in Carroll county; David died in Illinois; Benjamin died in Nebraska; Susannah died at the age of twenty-one; Ester married Washington Musselman, who went West during the gold rush in 1849, and who never returned. She was married the second time to Aaron Ulrey and lived with him in Carroll county until his death, when she removed to LaPlace, Illinois, where she died at the age of ninety-four years. The first Mrs. John Wagoner died in Ohio, and he was later married to Mary Cripe, who bore him nine children, all of whom are deceased except Leonard J., the subject of this sketch, and Mary, the widow of John Cripe, who died in 1905. They are the eighth and ninth in the family of John and Mary (Cripe) Wagoner. The other children, in the order of their birth, were as follow: Daniel died at the age of five years, and his remains were the first interred in the cemetery at Pyrmont; John died at the age of twenty-one and was buried at Pyrmont; Samuel died about 1910 at the age of eighty-one and was buried at Pyrmont; Abraham died in 1903 and is buried in the old German Baptist graveyard; his wife is still living in Genesee county, Michigan; Jacob died in middle life and was buried at Pyrmont; Christian died on the farm where his brother, Leonard J., now lives; Catherine, the wife of Daniel Deal, is deceased, and both are buried in the cemetery at Pyrmont.

The late John Wagoner removed to Carroll county about 1835. He built the first grist-mill and the first saw-mill on Wild Cat creek and, after operating the mill for a number of years, sold out to George Opp. At the time of his death he owned about two hundred acres of land and was a farmer and mill operator by occupation. Both he and his wife were members of the German Baptist church. He died on February 4, 1848, and his wife about the same time; both are buried in the cemetery at Pyrmont.

Leonard J. Wagoner was educated in the public schools of Carroll county and, in 1862, was married to Hannah Ulrey, a daughter of Jacob and Susan Ulrey. The marriage took place on May 4, 1862. Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner have had the following children: John H., born on February 23, 1863, was educated in the public schools of Clay township. On August 28, 1891, he was married to Sarah Hensel, who has borne him two children, Iva F., the wife of Arthur Ganger, and Harry E., who lives at home. Mrs. John H. Wagoner died in September, 1903, and after her death the husband married, on February 22, 1913, Jennie A. Prowant. He operates the home farm and is known as one of the most successful and skillful farmers in Clay township. He is prominent in the agricultural life of the township and takes a worthy interest in all commendable public enterprises. Jacob S., born on January 21, 1866, lives in Clay township; Isom, January 12, 1872, died in infancy; Emanuel, March 23, 1874, lives in Clinton county; Anna, June 6, 1877, died on January 12, 1903.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Wagoner own one hundred and fifty-four acres of well-improved land. The family are all members of the German Baptist church. Mr. Wagoner was elected the minister of the church more than thirty years ago and has served during the intervening period. There is no family living in Clay township which is more favorably known than that of the venerable Leonard J. Wagoner, who has lived a long and useful life in this community and has neglected no duty, public or private, in all of the years of his life.

✓ Ulrey, Sister Susan, daughter of Eld. John and Esther Ulrey, was born in Tippecanoe County, Ind., Oct. 13, 1856. While a young girl she with her parents moved to Pyrmont where she united with the Church of the Brethren at the age of twenty-three years and remained a true and faithful member. April 6, 1879, she married Solomon Ulrey and to them were born three children. In the fall of 1895 she with her husband was called to the office of deacon and in this capacity she was a faithful and devoted helper to her husband. Sept. 10, 1926, she suffered a paralytic stroke from which she never recovered. Dec. 26 she had a second stroke and died Dec. 29, 1929. One son, a daughter and an only sister survive. Services in the Pyrmont church by Elders Jeremiah and D. L. Barnhart.—Jeremiah Barnhart, Pyrmont, Ind.

✓ Ulrey, Bro. Solomon, born June 28, 1852, near Pyrmont, died Oct. 11, 1928, on the same farm where he was born and lived throughout his life. April 2, 1879, he married Susan Ulrey and to this union were born three children; one daughter died in infancy. He united with the Church of the Brethren in 1882 and was elected to the office of deacon in 1915. He was an active church worker, serving as a Sunday-school teacher and on various committees. His last service was as a member of the building committee for our new church.—Mrs. E. J. Houmard, Pyrmont, Ind.

LEONARD BLICKENSTAFF was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, May 11, 1811, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blickenstaff. He married Catherine Ulery; to them were born ten children. Leonard was elected to the ministry in the Middle Fork church near Rossville, Indiana. The family moved to Macon County, Illinois, settling on a prairie farm near Oakley in April of 1856. The parents were charter members of the first church organized by the Brethren in Macon County, which is now the Oakley congregation. His ministerial service was limited because his vocabulary and learning was in the German language. He died August 24, 1869.

BLICKENSTAFF, John (deceased), was for a number of years associated with important interests of Piatt County, especially at Cerro Gordo, although for a time prior to his demise, he was afflicted by trouble with his eyes which necessitated a partial retirement. He was born in Carroll County, Ind., November 19, 1835, a son of Leonard and Catherine (Ulery) Blinkenstaff, born and married in the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio. Following their marriage they moved to Indiana, settling near Lafayette, but subsequently moved to Macon County, Ill., buying land and farming it the remainder of their lives. The father died in 1866, and the mother in 1869.

John Blickenstaff had a very limited education, but learned to be a careful farmer. On September 15, 1857, he was married to Catherine Kuns, born in Carroll County, Ind., May 26, 1842, a daughter of Daniel and Maria (Lesley) Kuns, born in Ohio. They went to Indiana when they were children, and married in that state, afterwards coming to Macon County, Ill., locating on a farm there in 1855. He died in 1863, aged forty-one years. Subsequently Mrs. Kuns married (second) Martin Swank, and moved to Kansas, but returned in the fall of 1880, to Cerro Gordo, where Mrs. Swank died in June, 1900, aged seventy-eight years.

64.5.4.1

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Blickenstaff went on a farm in Macon County, three miles south of Cerro Gordo, he owning three pieces of land in that neighborhood, of 160 acres in the home farm, and another eighty-acre farm and a third, of 120 acres. Until 1879 they continued to live here, and then moved to Cerro Gordo where Mr. Blickenstaff bought ten acres of land at the city limits, on which he erected a fine residence, and put up other buildings. He gave to his two daughters each a farm. His death occurred November 11, 1914, but he had been a sufferer from failing eyesight from 1900. Since his demise his widow has resided in the home place. Their two children were Ida, who is Mrs. A. J. Chichester of Cerro Gordo; and Emma, who is Mrs. Isaiah Wheeler, also of Cerro Gordo. Mr. Blickenstaff belonged to the church of the Brethren, as does his widow, in which he was a deacon many years – from 1878 until death. He was a Republican & he was just ~~as~~ faithful in his support of that party as he was in all other relations of life.

FAMILY BIBLE RECORDS

This appendix contains the description of and family records from some of the older Bible records relative to the families described in this book.

Samuel Ulrich Bible

The following is a copy of the handwritten records on the blank leaves of a Bible printed in 1776 at Germantown, Pa., by Christopher Saur (3rd ed.). This Bible belonged to Samuel Ulrich who willed it to his grandson, Samuel Brown, in 1822. Samuel Brown gave it to his daughter, Mary (Brown) Bowers. She requested that her son, Samuel Bowers, give the Bible to his daughter, Mary (Bowers) Adams. In 1963, Mary Adams, great-great-great granddaughter of Samuel Ulrich, allowed us to study and photograph this priceless relic in order to prepare this transcript. Sam Adams had this Bible after his mother died.

The combined effects of fading, water spots, and German script have made the records difficult to decipher. There may therefore be certain spelling errors here not attributable to the original authors. They have, however, left us with a more significant problem by not identifying the parents of the children recorded here. Since the records are of births prior to the time the Bible left Samuel's hands, we may surmise that he asked his children to record their own families in his Bible.

The family born 1781 - 1792 is surely that of Samuel himself and the first birth does match that calculated for his daughter Elizabeth from her tombstone. The other three family groups would appear to be at least the first few children of his three daughters, Elizabeth Brown, Maria Studebaker, and Hannah Studebaker. The list that begins with Samuel, b. 27 Sept. 1801, must be the children of Jacob and Elizabeth Brown since this date matches that in Samuel Brown's own Bible. The list beginning with Samuel, b. 1808, appears to be the first children of John and Hannah (Ullery) Studebaker and the list beginning with "palli", b. 180-, must be some of the children of David and Mary (Ullery) Studebaker. This identification is made using dates from "The Studebaker Family" issues of winter and spring, 1972.

Samuel Ulrich signed in German. The witnesses were Daniel Leedy, Jacob Holsinger and John Holsinger, Junr. A codicil was added as follows:

> "I Samuel ulrich of woodberry township Bedford county and State of pennsylvania do this twenty first Day of may AD one thousand Eight hundred and twenty two make and pulish(sic) this codicil to my last will and testament in manner following (that is to say) I give to my son in law Jacob Brown the mare I now own and to my grandson Samuel Brown I give my large German Bible and I Do hereby Declare and order that my four Daughters named in my last will and testament pay each an equal part or Share of a Debt due by me to David Brumbaugh of Washington county Maryland the remaining part of my will and testament to be in full Virtue and it is my Desire that this my present codicil be annexed and made a part of my last will and testament to all intents and purposes In Wittnes where of I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 21 Day of may AD 1822
> "Signed Sealed published by the above named Saml Ulrich to be annexed to his last will and testament in the presence of John Holsinger Senr, John Forry"
> Again, Samuel signed in German script.

This will was probated in Bedford County, Pa., on 5 August 1822. Daniel Leedy, Jacob Holsinger, John Holsinger, Jr., John Holsinger, Sr., and John Forry all appeared and "affirmed" that they had witnessed the documents for Samuel Ulrich who was of sound mind, memory, and understanding at the time the papers were executed.

It is clear from this record that Samuel Ulrich died sometime in May through August of 1822. On 8 Dec. 1825 Mary sold her interest in 407 acres in Morrison's Cove to George Brumbaugh, her brother.{3} She was still living in Woodberry Twp. on 24 Oct. 1828 when she appointed Henry Fluck as attorney to act for her.{64} Samuel and Mary are probably buried in the Brethren Cemetery at New Enterprise, but their tombstones there are relatively recent. Her stone, flat on the ground, says "Mary Brumbaugh, born 1767, married Elder Samuel Ulery". His is a standing stone and says "Samuel Ulery, died 1822".

The list of children below is taken from the Ulrich Bible (see Appendix B). Brumbaugh{3} named only the daughters, but supplied the additional information on their families and descendants. Note that the first two sons and first two daughters were named after their grandparents Stephen and Elizabeth Ulrich and Jacob and Mary Brumbaugh. This naming pattern is further circumstantial evidence of proper identification of this line.

Children of Samuel and Mary (Brumbaugh) Ulrich

1. Elizabeth Ulrich b. 8 April 1781 d. 22 March 1857

She married Jacob Brown, see below.

2. Maria Ulrich b. 3 ???? 1783 d. 1861
   She married David Studebaker, son of Jacob and Mary (Snider) Studebaker. David was a minister in the G.B.B. Church and moved to Ohio. He had seven children -- Jacob, John W., Catharine, Elizabeth, Sarah, Abraham, and David.{3} The cover of the Spring 1972 issue of "The Studebaker Family" shows the Ohio homes of some of the children of Jacob and Mary (Snider) Studebaker including: David Studebaker (1780 - 1826) and Mary Ulrey (1783 - 1861); John Studebaker (1787 - 1833) and Hannah Ulrey (1789 - 1862).{61}

3. Stephen Ulrich b. 24 Nov. 1785
   He seems to be included in the 1790 census of the family, but not in 1800. Since neither he nor his heirs are mentioned in his father's will, he probably died young.

4. Catherine Ulrich b. 15 Oct. 1787
   She married John Snider, b. 1770. He was a farmer and member of the G.B.B. Church. He died in 1855 and is buried in Snake Spring Twp., Bedford Co., Pa. They had seven children --John, Jacob U., Elvina, David, Margaret, Maria, and Samuel.{3} Brumbaugh may be incorrect on the dates for John since the 1850 census of Bedford County lists the family of John (age 65) and Catharine (age 63) and in 1860 in Snake Spring Twp., John (age 75) and Catherine (age 72) Snider are listed. They were both born in Maryland and, in 1860, held real estate valued at $80,000.

5. Hannah Ulrich b. 20 May 1789 d. 1862
   She married John Studebaker, son of Jacob and Mary (Snider) Studebaker. He was a farmer and member of the G.B.B. Church. They moved to southern Ohio in 1816. Hannah died in Oct. 1862 and was buried at Eaton, Delaware Co., Ind. They had fourteen (or more) children -- Samuel, Jacob, John, David, George W., Daniel, Stephen, Isaac, Mary, Elizabeth, Margaret, Catherine, Hannah, and Lydia.{3} "The Studebaker Family" adds Phoebe to this list and states that after John died in 1833, at age 46, Hannah m. Elder Benjamin Bowman in Indiana.{61}

6. Jacob Ulrich b. 13 Aug. 1792
   He was not included in the 1800 census of this family and since neither he nor his heirs are mentioned in his father's will, he probably died young.

ELIZABETH ULRICH, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Brumbaugh) Ulrich, was born 8 April 1781, while her parents were probably still residents of Washington Co., Md. About 1799-1800, she married Jacob Brown. (See BROWN Family)

10-16, and a third female, age 16-26. On 28 Feb. 1822, Samuel Ulry and his wife Mary deeded to Jacob Brown (all residents of Bedford Co.), for two thousand and sixty one dollars and fifty cents, 257 acres on the waters of Yellow Creek in Woodberry Twp.{51}

Samuel Ulrich's will is filed in Bedford Co. as follows:

> "In the name of god Amen I Samuel ulrich of woodberry township Bedford county and State of pennsylvania being in full health and of Sound mind memory and understanding Blessed be god for the same knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and publish this my last will & testament in manner and form as follows principally & first of all I commend my immortal soul into the hands of god who gave it my Body to the earth to be buried in a decent and christian Like manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named and touching sich (sic) worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased god to bless me in this life I give and dispose of the same in following manner Viz

I also bequeath to wife the sum of thirty dollars yearly which is to paid to her by David Stucky his heirs attorneys or assigns yearly which is to be my wifes Share in full of my Estate
> "I give and bequeath to my daughter Elisabeth and to her heirs a tract of land on which she now lives containing two hundred and fifty seven acres at Eight Dollars per acre amounting to two thousand and fifty six dollars of which I Rd two hundred dollars by her husband Jacob Brown on condition that sd Brown is entitled to twenty five acres of said land
> "I also Bequeath to my daughter Catherine & to her heirs

a tract of Land where I now live on in the tenure of Jacob Snider for Eight Dollars per acre containing two hundred and four acres amounting to Sixteen hundred and thirty two Dollars two hundred Dollars of which I rd by her husband John Snider on condition that sd Snider is entitled to twenty five acres of said Land

"and to my Daughter Hannah and to her heirs I Bequeath the sum in full for a tract of land sold to David Stucky with the provision that five Hundred of the same be retained in the Hand of said Stucky and paying interest for the same yearly to my wife mary as above mentioned and my Daughter Hannah is further to have Sixty three Dollars to be paid by my Daughter Elisabeth to be paid as hereafter mentioned

"and to my Daughter Mary I give and bequeath the Sum of one thousand and seventy five Dollars Lawful money of the United States to be paid by my two Daughters Elisabeth and Catherine Elisabeth is to pay Seven Hundred and Eighteen and Catherine is to pay three Hundred and fifty seven dollars to be paid as follows the said Elisabeth and Catherine or their heirs executors administrators or assigns are to pay to said mary or to her heirs the sum of one hundred dollars Each one year after my decease and then fifty dollars Each yearly untill the whole be paid and said Elisabeth is to pay Sixty three Dollars to my daughter Hannah one year after the Last is paid to mary

"I also order and direct my executors to Sell that part of my Stock that is not wild to my wife and to collect the moneys due me and pay of my just debts then it is my will that my Executors pay to George Stull whom I Raised the Sum of forty Dollars two years after my Decease and if any be left to devide the Same Equally among my four Daughters and provided there is not enough left of my personal Estate to pay my Debts then my three Daughters Elisabeth Catherine & Hannah are each to pay an equal Share of the Same and my Daughter mary not to pay any part therof but to have her Share as above mentioned in full

"Lastly I nominate constitute and appoint my trusty friends Abraham Longenecker and David Long both of woodberry township Bedford county & State aforesaid Executors of this my Last will and testament hereby revoking and annuling all former wills Legacies and bequeaths by me made and confirming this and no other to be my Last in witnes whereof I have this Eleventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight Hundred and twenty one Signed Sealed published and Declared this as my Last will and testament in the presence of the witnesses who Subscribed their names to Such Execution at the request of the testator"

Will for Elizabeth
(Ulrich) Brown

#1. John G.W Smith, as executor of will for ELIZABETH BROWN (filed 7 APRIL 1857 and probated 5 MAY 1857), filed the settlement of her estate on 21 MARCH 1859.
Each of the following received $115.98.:
SAMUEL BROWN. JOHN W (U?) BROWN. GEO. W BROWN. JOHN and ELIZABETH BRYANT.
S [?] FORREY and H. FORREY [?].

#2. [redacted]. A.S BROWN. JACOB S BROWN. and P.S BROWN each got $38.65.
The Heirs of SARAH REPLOGLE [formerly Sarah Brown] got $99.39.

#3. GEO. W BROWN got 97.21. [its not clear why he received two portions].

#4. The file also contains a receipt for $38.65 from John G.W Smith, dated 20 SEP 1858, from PHILIP S BROWN of Kansas City MO, who describes himself as one of the Heirs of HENRY BROWN, [dec'd], who was son and Heir of said ELIZABETH BROWN.

#5. Another receipt is from JACOB U BROWN of Jefferson Co Kansas Territory, dated 17 OCT 1858, for $115.95, from the estate of ELIZABETH BROWN of Jefferson Co IA, deceased.

#6. There must be additional records of this estate because some earlier notes made by Warren Manning that JACOB B REPLOGLE to get $16.50 and GEORGE B REPLOGLE assigned his $16.50 to Jacob Replogle; and also that JOHN HOLLER and ELIZABETH HOLLER got 1/7 of 1/8 part of $16.56; as did BARBARA HOLSINGER and THOMAS HOLSINGER.

HENERY [sic] SMITH and HANNAH SMITH; HENERY [sic] EVERSOLE and SARAH EVERSOLE of South Woodbury TWP (PA), all relinquished their portions.

#7. There might have been seven (7) REPLOGLE children, (7x $16.56= $115.92); of whom six (6) were:
JACOB B REPLOGLE. GEORGE B REPLOGLE. ELIZABETH HOLLER. BARBARA HOLSINGER.
HANNAH SMITH. and SARAH EVERSOLE.

submitted by: SHIRLEY BEWLEY (desc. SAMUEL BROWN (dau.Hannah Brown Smith)
date: APRIL 1997

My OBSERVATIONS of above data rec'd MARCH 1997, from DAN OLDS (desc.SAMUEL BROWN (dau.Mary (Brown) Bowers.

#1. THESE (plus JACOB U BROWN), ARE CHILDREN OF ELIZABETH BROWN, (living MAR 1859).
ELIZABETH BRYANT COULD BE CHILD #8, LISTED AS MARRIED JOHN BURGER.
H. FORREY COULD BE HANNAH, CHILD #4, LISTED AS MARRIED LEONARD FURRY.

#2. I DON'T KNOW WHO [redacted] JACOB S BROWN is., BUT COULD BE DESC. OF HENRY.
A.S= ABRAHAM SHELLY BROWN, NAMED IN FAMILY BIBLE AS HENRY'S SON. P.S BROWN ACKNOWLEDGES HIMSELF AS HENRY'S SON. ITS RUMORED THAT HENRY HAD SON NAMED JACOB SHELLY BROWN. P.S.= PHILIP SHELLY.

#3. PERHAPS GEO. W BROWN GOT TWO PORTIONS BECAUSE ELIZABETH & JACOB LIVED IN HIS HOUSEHOLD, THEIR LAST YRS. (1850 Census JEFF.CO IA).

#4. WHY DID SOME REPLOGLE HEIRS GET ONLY 1/7 of 1/8 PART of $16.56, AND OTHERS GET IT ALL?

#6. THE TOTAL MONIES FOR REPLOGLE HEIRS WAS ONLY $99.39. PARAGRAPH #6 STATES EACH GOT $16.56. SO THE (7x16.56=115.92) STATEMENT MUST BE INCORRECT.
6 x $16.56= $99.36.

THE POSSIBLE SEVENTH REPLOGLE CHILD WOULD HAVE BEEN MARY (REPLOGLE) GRUBER.
MARY DIED FEB 1859, JUST BEFORE DATE WHEN JOHN G.W SMITH FILED SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE. I DON'T KNOW IF SHE HAD GRUBER CHILDREN HEIRS OR NOT.

OBITUARIES

-Copied from THE GOSPEL VISITOR, December, 1863

Died in Libertyville church, Jefferson county. Iowa, September 28, br Samuel Brown, aged 62 years, one day. He was a member of the church some thirty years, and a deacon fourteen years, and a great exampler and pillar in the church, leaving a wife and seven children to mourn their loss,-but we mourn not as those that have no hope, we have the assurance that he had passed from death unto life, and died in the full hope of a happy resurrection, and live forever at the right hand of God. His funeral was preached October 11, by the following named brethren: David and Jacob Brower from Keokuk county. John Murry from Marshal county, and George R Baker from Jasper county. Text Job 14:14.

THE MANY FAMILIES OF HOBART DALE WYANT

Mr. Wyant is related to many of the pioneer families of Jefferson County, Kansas, and would like to correspond with others related to the same. Write to him at:

Hobart Dale Wyant, 5303 Delaware, Wichita, Kansas 67204 .

He wrote the following and sent it for publication. Thank you, dear member of JCGS.

My great Grandfather and Grandmother, Jacob and Elizabeth Margaret (NEAL) WYANT came from Boone County, Indiana to Jackson County, Franklin Township, the town of Holton, Kansas about 1860; then to Jefferson County and the town of Ozawkie, Kans. They had six children, three were born in Indiana and two in Kansas, and one in Iowa. Their names were James F., Joshua Jackson, Benjaman Thomas, Jacob A., Lucy Ellen and William Perry WYANT. Jacob and Elizabeth, with the four youngest children, moved to Crawford County, Lincoln Township, town of Arcadia, Kansas and lived the rest of their lives there.

J. J. (or Joshua Jackson) WYANT and Benjaman Thomas WYANT stayed in Jefferson County. J. J. married Susan FISHEL on January 11, 1874. Benjaman Thomas married Mary FISHEL on June 27, 1880. Both couples were married in Topeka. J. J. and Susan had three children: Ellen, Roy and Oscar WYANT. Benjaman Thomas lived with J. J. and Susan until Mary and Thomas were married. J. J. and Susan moved to Rook County in the late 1890s, and later to Meroney, Arkansas.

Benjaman Thomas and Mary had three children, all born around Ozawkie, Kansas. First was my father, Walter WYANT, then Franklin, and Mariah Elizabeth. The two boys had no middle name. In 1895 they lived on 80 acres of land, with 70 acres in cultivation, 60 rods of hedge fence, 340 rods of wire fence; with cash value of $2,000. They had $20.00 worth of farm machinery, 4 acres of winter wheat, 3 acres of rye and 30 acres of corn. On March 1st, he had 250 bushels of corn, 14 tons of tame hay, and had sold 25 dozen eggs, 25 pounds of butter. He had 18 horses, 3 milk cows, 20 hogs, and had sold $20.00 worth of livestock. They had 100 apple trees, 3 pear trees, 30 peach trees, and had sold $5.00 worth of produce. They had 20 hives of bees, 200 pounds of honey, and 3 dogs. Benjaman Thomas and Mary, with their children, moved by covered wagon to Elk County, Greenwood Township, at Grenola, Kansas in 1897. They lived there until their death, and both are buried in the Grenola Cemetery.

Susan and Mary (FISHEL) WYANT's parents were J. Henry and Elizabeth (BROWN) FISHEL. Henry was born in 1823 in Pennsylvania; Elizabeth was born Sept. 1830 in the same state. They were married May 28, 1848 in Iowa. She died May 29, 1905 in Tropico, California. The BROWN family came to Jefferson County, kansas from Jefferson County, Iowa about 1870. There were 12 children:

1. Hannah b. 1848, married John BRUTON June 30, 1886 in Valley Falls.
2. Jacob b. 1850; d. 1850.
3. Ann b. 1852; m. John GURLEY Aug. 7, 1880.
4. Cathrine b. 1853; m. David PRIDDY Oct. 18, 1874; d. Oct. 5, 1877, bur. in Ozawkie Cemetery.
5. Susan b. 1855; m. Joshua Jackson WYANT Jan. 11, 1874; supposed to have died in Meroney, Ark.
6. Samuel b. 1858; m. Betty ROOT
7. Charles b. 1860; m. Lucinda ROOT
8. Franklin b. 1862; m. Sara ROOT
9. Mary Ann B. Dec. 3, 1863; m. Benjaman Thomas WYANT June 27, 1880; d. Sept. 14, 1923.
10. Mariah b. 1866; m. William Allen BITTLE June 23, 1889.
11. Laura b. 1868; m.#1 H. J. BEATTY Sept. 21, 1885; m.#2 Joseph SWING. attended Dist.#19, Rock Creek School in 1883
12. Louis Lauras (twin to Laura) b. 1868; m. Elizabeth BROWN, daughter of Jacob Ulysses and Amy HOOVER BROWN who also came from Penn. to Iowa to Jefferson County, Kansas. The Fishels and Browns were involved with the Brethren Church.

Daniel Miller might have died in Preble County, Ohio.

Taken from Gene Miller's " Daniel Miller (1755-1822) April 1979

Daniel Miller was born April 8, 1755, the son of PHILIP JACOB MILLER and MAGDALENE. PHILIP JACOB was the son of MICHAEL MILLER. His father PHILIP probably grew up on in the area east of Hanover, Penn. which is now part of York Co. but was then Baltimore Co., Md. In 1745, Michael Miller purchased 150 acres NW of what is now Hagerstown, the property being called Ash Swamp. The family probably moved onto the property in about 1751, as there was still a lot of danger from Indians prior to this and through the 1750's. PHILIP began to farm the property about this time and expanded it to 290 acres.

DANIEL was born and reared on this farm located to the NW of Hagerstown and SW of Maugansville. At this time the tributary RUSH RUN of the Conococheague River probably ran through the property. His good friend JACOB BRUMBAUGH was located several miles to the north near the border.

In about 1774, DANIEL married ELIZABETH ULRICH, whose family lived west of the Conococheague River near the border north of Faitview. She was the dau. of STEPHEN ULRICH whose principal.land holdings was a tract called GERMANY. Both families had known each other extending back at least to the early 1740's. DANIEL probably lived on his father's farm and began to raise his family. His first four or five children were born here on the farm. The 1783 census for the Hagerstown area shows Daniel still there, not owning any land, but having 5 cows and 5 horses. Presumedly, DAVID and ABRAHAM, his brothers were there also. His father PHILIP at that time only had 167 acres of land, with 98 acres in woodland, 14 acres in meadow land, and 55 acres of cultivated land. He had 9 horeses and 4 cows.

Land costs had been rising in the Washington Co. region as the area became more settled, as witnessed by the fact that Daniel at age 28 still did not own any land. Lured by the attraction of cheap land available for settlers, it is believed that Daniel and his brother DAVID, who had by this time married CATHARINE MAUGANS, a daughter of CONRAD MAUGANS, moved to Morrison's Cove, Woodberry Twp., Bedford Co., Penn. about 1785 or soon after. The Hagerstown area was at that time the supply point for settlers in tha area.

The Tax Assessment for Woodberry Twp. in 1789 show DANIEL with 214 acres, 3 horeses and 4 cows, DAVID with 474 acres, 2 horeses and 3 cows. No records of any kind has been found to date for this land. Presumedly, the property was located near what is now New Enterprise at the soughern end of the valley. This is where SAMUEL ULRICH, Elizabeth's brother, was located and many other German Baptist from the Washington Co. area.

DANIEL MILLER died on Aug. 26, 1822, probably in Randolph Twp., on the farm (Montgomery Co., Ohio) He is buried in the Sugar Hill Cemertry in Preble Co., Ohio near West Alexander. In Sept. 1834, the widow, ELIZABETH ULRICH MILLER, died in Randolph Twp., Montgomery Co., Ohio.

Delores,

Indeed I do remember you. Don & Kitty sold their home moving to Mill Ridge in Union, a satellite of the Brethren Retirement Community in Greenville. He has had some health issues but his mind is still a wonder at the age of 92 or so.

Ullery Cemetery, NE ¼ section 25, town 4, range 5E [Madison Township], about [illegible] mile east of the Wolf Creek Pike & Little Richmond Ave. intersection, about 1000' south of Little Richmond Ave., located in a woods on the west edge of the old CH&D Railroad tract. Reading of this cemetery was done on 16 Apr 1960 by Donald R. Bowman. He noted that the cemetery was destroyed the latter part of Nov 1962 to make way for construction. The remaining bones were reinterred in Bear Creek Cemetery facing State Route 35 just west of Union Rd. The following is markers Don found.

Judge Alfred Ellison, of Anderson dellvered the strongest speech in this city tonight that has been heard here for some time. Many say it it was the grandest speech ever delivered here. Judge Ellison has been on the lecture platform for some time and his manners are easy and graceful, his language simple and perfect and his fund of anecdotes large. His powers of analysis are remarkable and his logic exhibits the strength of Whately himself. The audience was the largest of the season.—Indianapolis Daily Sentinel. At Union Lodge Hall Nov. 16th under auspices of McCune Lecture Course Club.

OBITUARY.

Entered into the glory world—Mary Jane Ulery in the 70th year of her age. A faithful earthly life has closed. An earnest christian has been taken from her labors in this world to her reward in the world beyond. Aunt Jane, as she was familiarly known, was born in Wayne Co. Ohio June 15, 1837.

She with her husband and family came to Kans. in September 1880, where eight years later her husband died.

Her home has been in Girard where she has lived for many years with her son Henry, who has been teacher in the Girard schools.

Her health has been failing for several years but in the past few months her friends have entertained but little hopes of her recovery.

She was a constant member of the Dunkard church for many years.

Death had no terrors for her. The grave to her was only a shaded gateway through which she longed to pass that she might enter into the land of rest.

The funeral services were held at the home of her daughter Mrs. J D. Cook at whose home she died Nov. 1st, 1906. Rev. Chas. Miller officiated.

Five children, two sons and three daughters survive her.

Poem selected by her son.

A mothers gone to live with Jesus,
Over on the Shining Shore;
She's gone away from earthly trials,
All her sorrows now are o'er.

The toil-worn hands are folded gently
On the mothers silent breast;
The busy feet are stilled forever—
She has earned the needed rest.

For she heard the Savior calling,
In a voice of sweet accord;
"O well done, thy faithful servant,
Enter into thy reward."

Do not mourn for one so Saintly,
All ye children, great and small:
But rejoice that she is happy—
She has gone to Jesus call.

A faithful mothers' left her children
An earnest Christians gone to God,
But her life work, great example,
Leads them in the path she trod.

John's Will written April 1, 1818, bequeaths to my dear wife all my property and the right to live in my house & to retain my property as long as she is my widow. When she is no longer there the place shall be sold & the children shall divide the property into equal parts each receiving as much as the others. Wife Catharina & Heinrich Metzger, executors. Wit: Stephen Ulrich, Christian Scheibeli, Isaach Ulrich, Signed Johannes Kreib Mtgy. Co. Ohio Guardianships 2-24-1823: Hannah Gripe, age 16, chose Stephen Ullery & Ullery also to serve as guardian of Stephen Gripe, age 9. Henry Metzger appointed guardian of DAvid Gripe, age 7, and Elizabeth Gripe, age 11, all heirs of John Gripe, dec'd.

Lindsey Brien, in Miami Valley (OHIO) Pioneers, A Genealogical Index, believes Catharine to be CAtharine Wolf.

JOSEPH ULRICH.

There are many old and experienced farmers in Kosciusko county, Indiana, but there are few who excel in years or experience Joseph Ulrich, of Jackson township, who is the subject of this biography. He was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, December 26, 1813, and is a son of Stephen and Ann (Christian) Ulrich.

The great-grandparents of Mr. Ulrich came from Germany long prior to the American Revolution and settled in that part of Huntingdon county which has since been erected into the county of Blair in Pennsylvania. There the paternal grandfather of subject married Susan Urench, who bore him six children, namely: Joseph, Susan, Catherine, Mary, Stephen and Samuel.

78 Stephen Ulrich, father of Joseph, the subject of this sketch, removed from the Keystone state to the Buckeye state soon after his marriage and bought two hundred and eighty acres of land near the city of Dayton, in Montgomery county, but after farming there for some years sold out and came to Kosciusko county, Indiana. In October, 1835, there had been a land sale at Fort Wayne, at which Stephen entered a large tract in Jackson township, Kosciusko county. Joseph, the subject, and a brother, although they owned nine hundred and sixty acres, were desirous of securing six hundred and forty additional acres, and on Monday, January 3, 1836, started on foot from Dayton, Ohio, for Laporte, Indiana, bent on making further purchases. Their route was by the way of Muncie, Indiana, and thence to Marion, where there were only three log houses at the time, and thence to LaGro. At this point they were overtaken by darkness and could find no means by which they could cross the Wabash river and felt themselves to be in good luck when they found shelter in a shanty in the neighborhood for the night. The two brothers had on their persons seventeen hundred dollars and for a long time sat by the fire, but eventually retired to bed, but not to sleep. The following morning the brothers crossed the river in a skiff and forged on to Laporte, via Manchester. They entered three hundred and twenty acres of government land in Jackson township, Kosciusko county, and then went on to Logansport, Lafayette and Indianapolis, all at that time small towns. They walked all the way, a distance of five hundred miles, and were about five weeks on the trip, crossing swollen streams on logs and following Indian trails through the woods. Finally Stephen Ulrich returned to Ohio.

To Stephen and Anna (Christian) Ulrich were born six children, viz.: Joseph, subject of this sketch; Samuel, who married Sarah Ulrich, but is now deceased; Solomon; Stephen, who first married a Miss Heeter and secondly Susan Overhultzer, a native of Wabash county, Indiana; Jacob, who also married a Miss Heeter and likewise resides in Wabash county; and Elizabeth, wife of Jacob Heeter, of the same county.

This Joseph Ulrich is a nephew of our Mary Ulrich (wife of Andrew Metzger) — also of Susannah, Henry Metzger's wife. Mary's brother, Stephen Ulrich, and his family, are buried on the banks of the Eel River in Ulrey Cemetery. I've been to their graves.

There's quite a bit written about the Joseph Ulrichs, by a granddaughter, in Binnie's Eel River Brethren book. Binnie also wrote a book about the Gabriel Ulrey family (Joseph's son) and I have it.

Joseph Ulrich learned the shoemaker's trade in his early days and followed that calling for thirty-five years. He had attended school about nine months, and had learned to read and write, but acquired some considerable knowledge when he was united in marriage, August 9, 1838, with Miss Elizabeth Swihart, who was born September 21, 1819, in Ohio. Six years after marriage he came to Kosciusko county, Indiana, and in 1844 settled in Jackson township on twenty-two acres of woodland, the farm on which he now lives, which land he cleared up and improved with a comfortable dwelling and other necessary structures. In the winter of 1846 he taught the first school in the township and received forty-five dollars for his sixty days service in this capacity.

Joseph and Elizabeth (Swihart) Ulrich have been blessed with five children, namely: Gabriel, born December 26, 1839, taught school several terms, married Mary A. Kreider, and lives in Jackson township; Stephen A., born July 22, 1842, married Rachel Bear and also resides in this township; Aaron, born April 11, 1844, married Mary J. Miller and died in 1875; Anna E., born September 2, 1847, is the wife of Levi Miller; Joseph, born July 1, 1850, married Elizabeth Miller, and these two families likewise live in Jackson township.

In 1848 Mr. Ulrich built a saw-mill in which he sawed many thousand feet of lumber and also destroyed many thousand feet by fire, as he owned a half-section of forest land in one body and an eighty-acre tract besides.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich are devout members of the German Baptist church, of which they have been communicants since 1840 and which they have liberally aided in supporting financially. This body was organized in 1837, and it will be seen that the subject and wife were among its early members. Since 1860 Mr. Ulrich has been a deacon and for over thirty years was sexton; he witnessed the church's many struggles in the earlier days, but has lived to see it thrive and increase until the original Eel River district, as it was called, had been subdivided into several districts, a schism having occurred for some reason in the congregation in 1881.

Mr. Ulrich has never interfered with or taken any active part in politics, but his proclivities are with the Republicans. He and wife have journeyed over the path of life hand in hand for sixty-four years and are in all probability the oldest couple in Kosciusko county; certainly none are better known nor more highly respected for their many amiable personal characteristics. Mr. Ulrich has ever been a truly public-spirited citizen and has done as much, in a monetary sense and otherwise, for Jackson township as any man living within its boundaries, and in consequence stands as one of the foremost in public esteem.

ELIAS A. STONEBURNER.

This gallant ex-soldier, ex-teacher and capable civil official and prominent citizen of Sidney, Kosciusko county, Indiana, was born in Hocking county, Ohio, October 19, 1842, and is a son of James and Julia A. (Souder) Stoneburner.

Andrew Stoneburner, paternal grandfather of Elias A., was born in Germany and was a single man when he came to America

Jacob Ulrey, 1829-1916.

7858 = 156.2.5.5

Born in Montgomery County Ohio and son of Stephen Ulrey. Father and Son, came to Wabash County, Indiana in 1851 and settled one mile north and one mile west of Acme, which became the Ulrey homestead.

In 1849 was married to Christina Heeter who was born in Ohio in 1829. Twelve children were born to them. Two died in infancy, and others were married as follows: Samuel to Mary Grossnickle; George to Hannah Koontz; Kate to Henry Lautzenhizer; Susan to Noah Cripe; John to Amanda Brookins; Stephen to Callie Walther then to Tessa Oren; Ellen to Samuel Karns; Ida to Esli Frantz; Henry to Meda Grossnickle and Joseph to Mary Hiser.

He cleared the farm of timber, erected first a log house and later a frame dwelling together with necessary barns and other buildings. Farming and threshing of grain, through many years of labor, enabled him to acquire some eight hundred acres of land in the vicinity of North Manchester. Almost immediately after coming to Indiana he began as a thresher of grain and continued almost as long as he lived, or for sixty years, which earned for him the title of "Veteran Thresher of Indiana." His first threshing outfit was a chaff-piler run by horse power, but as improvements came in machinery he adopted them, thus was always up-to-date. He was a very active man and kept direct management of five hundred acres of farm land, even to the day of his death, at age of 88.

He lived the out-of-door life and was scarcely ever sick. He was as alert in mind, as in body, thought for himself and acted on his own judgment which was generally right. He was positive, honest and cordial and had the highest respect of all who knew him. His threshing dress may be characterized by saying that he wore his waist-coat with lower corners tied together in a knot to prevent getting caught in the machinery, a red bandana about his neck and bare-footed. He took great pride in driving a fine four-horse team hitched to the old Pennsylvania wagon stacked high with grain for the market. He and wife were members of the Church of the Brethren and at death were laid to rest in Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

The father of Samuel, Stephen Ullery, emigrated to Ohio from Pennsylvania, and settled in Montgomery County in 1811. Samuel was united in marriage to Miss Susan Miller. By this union there was born to them one child, viz: Susan, now the wife of David Beechley, of Madison Township. His wife, Susan, died and he was united in marriage to his second wife, Susan Whitehead, a daughter of Valentine Whitehead, of Madison Township, deceased. By this union there were born to them ten children, eight of whom are now living, viz: Moses, who lives in Madison Township; Aaron, who lives in Randolph Township; Stephen, of Madison Township; Mary, now wife of David Cripe, of Madison Township; Samuel of Madison Township; Christopher of Madison Township, and Valentine of Dakota Territory. Samuel Ullery lived and died a member of the German Baptist Church. He departed this life Jan. 23, 1865. His widow is still living, and is a member of the same church. Stephen, the subject of this memoir, was reared 78.6.6 a farmer, and has since followed the choice of his youth. He was united in marriage May 23, 1850, to Maria C. Mumma, a daughter of Samuel Mumma, of Harrison Township, deceased. She was born April 1832. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Priser, of the Lutheran Church. This marriage has been blessed by the birth of eleven children, of whom eight are now living, viz: Samuel, Susan, wife of Perry Holler, of Madison Township, Stephen E., Katie J., now the wife of Greely Pfoutz, of Madison Township, Ira C., Amos S., Monroe D. and Harry C. Mr. and Mrs. Ullery are members of the German Baptist Church. Mr. Ullery has been a resident of Montgomery County since his birth, in 1831. He is the owner of a farm of 97 acres of land, where he lives, near Trotwood, in Madison Township.

entered late in 1778 close the record. This liber also has occasional entries of bills of sale and other papers.

The records of the office of register of wills seem to be nearly complete for the earlier years of the county.

Liber A J No. 1 of wills has 533 pages of entries arranged alphabetically from Q to Z and ranging in time from 1774 to 1785.

Liber A J No. 2 of wills has 271 pages of entries arranged from A to P.

Liber of inventories marked "1777 to 1787" has 293 pages.

Liber of administration accounts marked "1774-91" has 528 pages.

COMMISSION BOOK, 82.

The eighteenth century folio known as "Commission Book No. 82" is in reality one of the records of the Council of Maryland and contains all sorts of miscellaneous entries from July 1733 to 1773, covering 347 pages. There are many commissions recorded, together with ship registries, Inductions to Clergymen, licenses to preach, naturalizations and denizations, receipts for arms and ammunition, pardons and reprieves, and other miscellaneous entries. A few of the commissions and pardons are entered in full in the involved legal verbiage of the period, but the majority of the items are briefly entered, covering only two to three lines each. This transcript gives all essential information contained in the original manuscript, but so arranged as to emphasize the personal names mentioned. For obvious reasons, a few items, such as the pardon of "Negro Jack," which in the original covers three pages, is entirely omitted. The numbers in parentheses refer to the pages of the original Mss. There is an unexplained break in this record between 1751 and 1761, which corresponds with a similar lapse in the record of the Court of Appeals.

Another Commission Book, 1726 to 1786, also a record of the Council, contains all of the major commissions issued in that period.

Other commissions are to be found in the published volumes of the Archives.—[Editor.]

COMMISSION BOOK, 82.

The eighteenth century folio known as "Commission Book No. 82" is in reality one of the records of the Council of Maryland and contains all sorts of miscellaneous entries from July 1753 to 1773, covering 262 pages. There are many commissions recorded, together with ship registers, Dedimus in Chancery, licenses to preach, naturalizations and inductions, receipts for arms and ammunition, pardons and reprieves, and other miscellaneous entries. A few of the commissions and pardons are entered in full in the standard legal verbiage of the period, but the majority of the items are briefly entered, covering only two to three lines each. This transcript gives all essential information contained in the original manuscript, but so arranged as to emphasize the personal names mentioned. For obvious reasons, a few items, such as the pardon of "Negro Jack," which in the original covers three pages, is entirely omitted. The numbers in parentheses refer to the pages of the original liber. There is no transcribing break in this record between 1755 and 1761, which corresponds with a similar lapse in the record of the Court of Appeals.

Another Commission Book, 1726 to 1786, also a record of the Council, contains all of the major commissions issued in that period.

Other commissions are to be found in the published volumes of the Archives.—[Editor.]

Ages of Some 1767 Residents

Nancy J. Myers

On 17 March 1767, Peter Rench petitioned the Frederick County Court for a Commission to be appointed to examine evidences and prove the bounds of the following tracts of land in Frederick County (some in what became Washington County) owned by Rench: Dawson's Strife, Hickmans Meadow, division boundary in Dawsons Strife between Robert Downey and Peter Rench, Doe Little, Four Springs, Addition to the Four Springs, Penny Pack Pound, Wooden Platter, Cool Spring, Good Wife, Addition to Good Wife, and Frenches Vineyard.

Joseph Chapline, Joseph Smith, William Good, and John Perrin of Frederick County were commissioned by the Justices of the Frederick County Court to call witnesses for examination touching on their knowledge of the bounds of the above tracts. Sworn depositions were taken 24, 25, 26, and 28 August 1767 from the following men. The certificate was signed by the Commission on 12 September 1767 and recorded in the August Court Term and Frederick County Land Records, L:59-66. Those names preceded by an asterisk made solemn affirmation rather than sworn depositions suggesting Anabaptist status; most ages in the document are preceded by "about":

Items of Interest as Taken From the Somerset Democrat

(Somerset DEMOCRAT Wednesday, July 1880)

Morgan's Woolen Mill established 1812 at Quemahoning has added new machinery almost doubling capacity for manufacturing blankets, satinets, flannels, carpets, yarns, cassimeres, jeans, repellants, coverlets, etc. etc., to trade for wool. In order to reach all customers in good time, employed same agents as last year, and, in addition, Mr. Jas. L. Daugherty, who first introduced my goods into many parts of this county. /s/ Wm. S. Morgan.

The Somerset Foundry, operated by J. H. Zimmerman and George Snyder, will make your sugar grates, sled soles, stove linings and grates, plow points and shares; also made and for sale the Boaz and Stoner and Hecla heating stoves. A machine shop has been attached to the foundry in which all kinds of machinery will be repaired promptly.

Following Johann Fredrick(Desern)'s death in 1778, Barbara Tefern (Desern), widow of Frederick Tefern (Desern) of Conococheague Hundred, Washington County, Maryland (the term hundred meaning the same as township) remarried in 1780 to become the 3rd wife of Joseph Peter Rench. There is record of Barbara and Joseph having a daughter named Margaret Rench. This may actually be Margaret Tefern, who was the daughter of Barbara Tefern and Frederick Tefern. Frederick Tefern's will dated October 21, 1778 and probated November 24, 1778, names his beloved wife, Barbara, and his daughter, Margaret, who later married John Millhouse. This is the Millhouse family later found in Springcreek Township, Miami County, Ohio. Barbara Tefern's gravestone can be seen in the old Millhouse Cemetery in Springcreek Township. It reads: Barbary RENCH, died in 1820 aged 80 odd years. Barbara's granddaughter, Barbara Millhouse, married Henry Dilbone. The Dilbone family was massacred by Indians during August 1813 in what is now Springcreek Township. An account of this incident can be found in BEERS' 1880 History of Miami County, page 251.

You have John listed as being buried in the Geeseytown Cemetery. At this point, I have not found any proof of burial anywhere.

John died in 1838. The Geeseytown Cemetery was created in either 1844 or 1846 I can't recall at the moment).

At the time of John's death, he owned property across the Juniata River from Geeseytown which had a cemetery at the edge of the property. It is most likely that he was buried here, possibly also with his first wife, Magdalena Stombaugh, and his second wife, an unknown Bouslough.

Susan

The cemetery has had many names: Old Frankstown, Casner, Kimberling, Bouslough, and Brua. There are around 40 stones, only 3 names are legible.

John was my 4th great-grandfather, and I do have quite a bit of research on him and his family, if there's any more info you would like for your memorial.

Sincerely,

Chad J. Whitesel

Joseph Rench Bouslaugh

From "John Rentch Family Tree" page...

(From Debbie Beechley's Web Page) Castana, Monona Co. Iowa

Obituary of Joseph R. Bouslaugh

DIED, at his residence in Center township, Sunday, January 6th, 1895, at 9:35 a. m., Judge Joseph R. Bouslaugh, aged 89 years, 11 months and 21 days. Joseph R. was the son of Sebastian Bouslaugh jr., a native of Switzerland, and the grandson of Sebastian Bouslaugh sr., who was from the same republic. Joseph R. Bouslaugh was born in that part of Huntingdon county, now forming the county of Blair, Pa., on January 16th, 1805. He was reared in his native state and came west in 1837 and located in Ohio. From there he removed to Indiana and settled in Wayne county but two years later removed to Henry county in the same state. A short time afterward he returned to Ohio, where he made his home for four years, and in the spring of 1846 came to Illinois and located in Hancock county. Nine years later he removed to Polk county, Iowa, and in 1859 to Monona county. In September of the latter year he entered a tract of sixty acres of land in sections 8 and 9 Center township, upon which he resided at the time of his death. Mr. Bouslaugh was prominently identified with the official life of the county in its early days, and at the October election of 1861 was chosen to fill the office of county judge. He held it for one term, serving at the same time as chairman of the board of supervisors of the county, and representative of the township of Maple. He retained this position on the county board until 1869, and was prominently identified with all the legislation during that period, most of the time filling the office of chairman. Judge Bouslaugh was united in marriage May 4th, 1826, with Miss Margaret Thomas, a native of Washington county, Md., born Nov. 7th, 1808, and was the parent of eight children, five of whom, together with a loving wife, are left to mourn his demise. The funeral was held at the residence at two o'clock Monday afternoon, Jan.7th, the Rev. J.W. Plummer officiating, after which a large concourse of relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Center cemetery.

Judge Bouslaugh Family

Judge Joseph R. Bouslaugh was born at Harrisburg, PA.1/13/1805. He grew to manhood and received his education in the schools of Harrisburg. He was married to Margaret Thomas of Hagerstown, Pa.(I think this is a typo and supposed to be Maryland)in May of 1827.

They came to Warsaw, Il.,by oxen team,in the year 1848. In 1854 they settled in Center Twp.,Monona County, Ia., where they resided continuosly until his death in 1896. Mr. and Mrs. Bouslaugh's family was as follows: Theodore, Josephine, Jasper, Elissiff and Marion. When they came to Center Twp. they had 3 covered wagons driven by horses. One wagon contained their winter supply of barreled pork, barreled flour, and all groceries to last through the cold season.

They pitched their tent in the tall prarie grass and proceeded at once to go to the Maple River and cut trees with which to build their log house. Mr's Bouslaugh was obliged to go to the Maple River to do the washings over a campfire until a well could be located.

In the year of 1861, Mr. Bouslaugh was chosen Judge of Monona County, which office he held for 8 years. He was president of the board of supervisors for 12 years.

JOSEPH R. BOUSLAUGH, an old settler of the county and one of its most prominent citizens in an early day, is now a resident of Center Township. He was born in that part of Huntingdon County now forming the county of Blair, Pa., January 16, 1805. He is the son of Sebastian Bouslaugh, Jr., a native of Switzerland, and the grandson of Sebastian Bouslaugh, Sr., who was born in the same Republic. About the year 1764 Sebastian, Jr., left his home amid the Alps and sailed for the Colonies of America, being then about nineteen years of age. He settled in Pennsylvania, where he married Miss Esther Rench by whom he had eight children: Joseph, who died in infancy; Jacob, who died about 1840; Elizabeth, Catherine, Margaret, Susan, Sarah and Joseph R. He removed to Indiana in an early day and died in Prairie Township, Henry County, November 28, 1841. He was a millwright by trade and followed that business in his younger days, but in later years devoted his attention to farming. Joseph R. Bouslaugh was reared in his native State, and came West in about 1837, and located in Ohio. From there he removed to Indiana and settled in Wayne County but, two years later, removed to Henry County in the same State. A short time afterward he returned to Ohio where he made his home for four years, and in the spring of 1846 came to Illinois and located in Hancock County. Nine years later he removed to Polk County, Iowa, and in 1859 to Monona County. In September of the latter year he entered a tract of about eighty acres of land on sections 8 and 9, Center Township, which he commenced to improve. To this he subsequently added about one hundred acres, of which he retains sixty and upon which he still resides. Mr. Bouslaugh was prominently identified with the official life of the county in its early days, and at the October election in 1861 was chosen to fill the office of County Judge. He held it for one term, serving at the same time as Chairman of the board of supervisors of the county and representative of the town of Maple. He retained this position on the county board until 1869, and was prominently identified with all the legislation during that period, most of the time filling the office of chairman.

Judge Bouslaugh was united in marriage, May 4, 1826, with Miss Margaret Thomas, a native of Washington County, Md., born November 7, 1808, and is the parent of eight children—Theodore T., Elissiff L., Lovina T., Josephine T., Jasper, Newton and Marion.

Among the portraits of some of the most valued and representative citizens and pioneers of Monona County given in this volume may be found that of Judge Bouslaugh, given on another page.

JAMES GRAHAM, deceased. Among the highly educated and gifted people, resident in Monona County, there is probably none who occupied a higher position than the gentleman whose name heads this sketch. He was a prominent and popular resident of the town of Spring Valley, living on section 30, where he had a magnificent farm of some four hundred acres, devoted to the raising of cereals and of cattle. Here he settled in the fall of 1867. He was a representative of that well-known race, commonly called the Scotch-Irish, the descendants of the hardy Scotchmen, who, rather than endure persecution in their native land, fled to the northern part of the neighboring island of Ireland, where they have preserved their faith and race peculiarities to the present time.

Mr. Graham was born in County Down, Ireland, March 10, 1820, and was the son of John and Sarah (Foley) Graham, natives of the same county. His father was a farmer and merchant, and came to

Casper Joseph "John" Walters

BIRTH	1725
DEATH	8 Jul 1756 (aged 30–31) Franklin County, Pennsylvania, USA
BURIAL	Non-Cemetery Burial, Specifically: Killed by indians, buried in a meadow
MEMORIAL ID	160996553 ·

On Sunday morning, July 8, 1756, the farm of Casper and Barbara Baer WALTER in the Conococheague settlement in what is now Franklin County, PA, was attacked by a small band of Indians. Casper WALTER, who was sitting on the porch reading his Bible, was killed instantly. His wife, Barbara, was tortured, but survived. She later married Henry HOUSEHOLDER, a neighbor. The three younger WALTER children were killed, at least one by dashing its head against a tree. The four older children spared and carried off by the Indians. These children were John, b. 1743; Ephraim, b. 1744; Mary, b. 1745; and Rebecca Regina, b. 1746. The story of the raid is that John was playing with a neighbor boy by the name of Galloday who escaped the attack and ran the short distance to Kesecker's Mill, from which point an alarm was sent out to Fort Allison, about one quarter mile away. Rev. John STEELE was conducting Sunday services at the fort, which were terminated and a party of men left, joining Capt. POTTER at Kesecker's Mill. This happened so quickly that the party arrived at the WALTER's home soon enough to prevent the scalping of Casper. The dead were buried in a nearby meadow.

Genealogical Gleanings

From Orphans Court Records of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania

Abstracted by
SOPHIE SELDEN ROGERS

THIS final installment concludes Mrs. Roger's extracts from the Orphans Court records of Lancaster County. Entries in this issue run from 9 March 1754 through 14 March 1758, and follow in time those published in the last issue of this Magazine (Volume XXIV, No. 2), pages 118 to 139. (Pages 336-357, this volume)

As in previous issues, the spelling as transcribed by Mrs. Rogers has been retained. Where there was some doubt as to its accuracy, such has been indicated either by the introduction of "sic" or by a parenthetical question mark. A small amount of punctuation has been introduced for clarity. The bracketed numbers on the left of the entries indicate the page of the original record. The reader is reminded that these abstracts represent only genealogical gleanings and not the complete record relating to the individuals named therein. For the complete record and for accuracy the originals should be examined.

Zollman Cemetery

George Horvath, Jr.

This cemetery is on a small knoll near a farm lane off Clemsonville Road near LeHigh Road in Frederick County. It was first discovered by Marie Burns of Frederick, and copied by the contributor and Anne Parry Horvath, with the assistance of Harold Nelson, a local farmer. The land was originally part of William's Neglect. Eight definite stones were found, but only three were legible enough to reveal a name. More are surely buried under the brush.

The State of Oh

I Joseph Ullery Senior. of the County of St Joseph in the State of Indiana do make and publish this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

It is my Will, and I direct that my body be decently intered, and that my funeral be conducted in a plain manner — And as to such worldly Estate as it has pleased God to bleſs me with, I dispose of the same in the following manner. viz-

First - I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my Estate as soon after my decease as may be convenient to my Executors.

Second I give and bequeath to my beloved Daughter Barbara Farneman And to her Husband Joseph Farneman The Farm on which I now reside, which I purchased of Hiram Rush and Ann Rush his wife, and by them deeded to me on the Eighth day of March AD, 1838. (except that portion out of said real estate mentioned in said deed, being One hundred and forty acres heretofore deeded by me to my son Jacob Ullery) containing about One hundred and sixty acres more or leſs, after taking out the next two following bequests towit-

Further. I hereby devise and bequeath to the Dunker Church where I now live, One Acre of land to be laid out in a square form, to be bounded on the East by the Michigan Road and on the South by the lands of Jacob Ullery — on which to erect a Church to be devoted to the doctrins of our said Church as now taught.

__Further__ — I hereby devise and bequeath, for the purpose of a family burying grounds for myself and for my neighbors a piece of ground adjoining the present grave yard, nearly east of my present residence, and East of the Michigan Roads, a piece of ground sufficient to extend the present grave yard, North to the lane running east and west by the grave yard in such a manner, that the line on the West of the present grave yard, shall be extended North to said lane, thence East on the South line of the lane to within one rod of the North East corner of the grave yard, thence South to the North line of the grave yard.

__Third__ I hereby direct my Executors to sell, in such manner, as soon after my deceas as may be convenient, either at public or private sale and on such terms as they may deem most ad=visable — the following real estate towit — The South part of the North half of the North West quarter of Section number One in Township number thirty six North, of Range number two East, con=taining forty Acres More or leſs — Also a piece of land in the East part of the North East quarter of Section Number two, in Township number thirty six North, of Range number two East and bounded as follows, beginning at a Stake at the East side of the Michigan Road, thence South fifty seven degrees East, Eight chains and thirty four links to a Stake, thence North ten Chains and four links to a Stake, thence West five Chains and fourteen links to a Stake at the East side of the Michigan Road, thence South Seventeen degrees West with said Road six chains and three links to the place of beginning — And in like manner to sell and dispose of all the balance of my said estate either real or personal, and the avails thereof to be equally divided, share and share alike between my children (except my daughter Susan Price to whom I have heretofore given all I intend for her) and I hereby give my Executors the power and authority to make and execute all neceſsary Deeds or other instruments of writing neceſsary to carry out the intention of this my last will and testament—

And I further will and direct that in case any or either of my children shall be dissatisfied with this my last will and shall make any disturbance with any of my children on account of the disposition I have here made of my estate, I hereby declare and will, that any such of my children shall be wholly cut off from any and every interest in this my said will & my said estate settled accordingly - and in this I intend to mean and include my sons-in-laws - as among my children as aforesaid -

And I do hereby appoint my sons Stephen Ullery and David Ullery my Executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I the said Joseph Ullery
Senior the testator have hereunto set my hand and seal this Eleventh day of January 1839.

Will

I, Joseph Ullery of St Joseph County in the State of Indiana, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament

Item 1. It is my will that all of my just debts and funeral expenses, to include a suitable tombstone, be first paid out of my estate.

Item 2. All of the remainder of my estate of every kind I give, devise and bequeath to my executor hereinafter named in trust, as follows: Said executor shall convert said estate into money, as soon after my decease, as practicable, and I do authorize and empower him to sell at private sale or in such manner upon such terms of credit or otherwise, as he may think proper without an order of court, the whole or any part of such real estate, and deeds to purchasers to execute, acknowledge, and deliver in fee simple, and the net proceeds, after paying all expenses of administration and other just claims against my estate, said executor shall divide into three equal parts, one of which parts he shall pay to Adaline Shirly, my granddaughter.

Out of another one third part he shall first pay $800. to the children of Polly Miller living at the time of my decease, which $800. shall be divided equally between said children. The remainder of said one third part he shall pay to said Polly Miller, my daughter.

With the remaining one third part he shall

First pay Wilmina Ullery, the present wife of my son, Joseph A. Ullery $500, and next pay to Luella Snyder wife of William Snyder, and daughter of said Joseph A. Ullery ($500) Five hundred dollars

The remainder of said one third part said executor shall pay to said Joseph A. Ullery.

My said executor and his successors shall manage and control said estate from the time of my decease until the same is sold, and all power herein given to my executor shall be exercised in like manner by his successors

In case any devisee shall contest this will such devisee shall take nothing under this will and the share devised to said devisee shall be divided equally among the devisees who shall not contest this will

Item 3. I do hereby nominate and appoint my said son, Joseph A. Ullery, Executor of this my last will and testament, and I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 9th day of March 1894
